

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

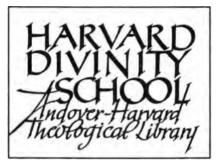

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

HYMNS

SELECTED

FROM VARIOUS AUTHORS.

HYMN 1. L. M. Old Hundred. [*]

Being of God. Ps. civ.

e 1 THERE is a God—all nature speaks, Through earth, and air, and sea, and o See from the clouds his glory breaks, [skies; When the first beams of morning rise.

- —2 The rising sun, serenely bright, O'er the wide world's extended frame, Inscribes, in characters of light, His mighty Maker's glorious name.
- o 3 The flow'ry tribes all blooming rise, Above the weak attempts of art;

e The smallest worms, the meanest flies, Speak sweet conviction to the heart.

- —4 Ye curious minds, who roam abroad, And trace creation's wonders o'er,
- e Confess the footsteps of the God;—

a Bow down before him—and adoré.

Steele.

HYMN 2. C. M. Tunbridge. [b*] Goodness of God. Nahum i, 7.

TE humble souls, approach your God,

With songs of sacred praise; For he is good, immensely good,

And kind are all his ways.

2 All nature owns his guardian care; In him we live and move:

O But nobler benefits declare The wonders of his love.

e 3 He gave his Son, his only Son, To ransom rebel worms;

— Tis here he makes his goodness known, In its divinest forms.

e 4 To this dear refuge, Lord, we come; 'Tis here our hope relies:

o A safe defence, a peaceful home, When storms of trouble rise. —5 Thine eye beholds, with kind regard,
The souls who trust in thee;
Their humble hope thou wilt reward,
With bliss divinely free.

o 6 Great God, to thy almighty Love What honours shall we raise?

Not all the raptur'd songs above Can render equal praise.

Steele.

HYMN 3. C. M. Mitcham. Arundel. [*]

1 E TERNAL Wisdom, thee we praise; Thee the creation sings;

With thy lov'd name, rocks, hills, and seas, And heaven's high palace rings.

g 2 Thy hand,—how wide it spread the sky! How glorious to behold!

-Ting'd with a blue of heavenly die, And starr'd with sparkling gold.

3 Thy glories blaze, all nature round, And strike the gazing sight,

Through skies, and seas, and solid ground, With terrour and delight.

g 4 Infinite strength, and equal skill, Shine through the worlds abroad, e Our souls with vast amazement fill, And speak the builder—God.

-5 But still the wonders of thy grace

e Our softer passions move; Pity divine, in Jesus' face, We see, adore, and love.

Watts.

HYMN 4. C. M. Bedford. [*] Sovereignty and Dominion of God.

a 1 KEP silence—all created things, And wait your Maker's nod;

My soul stands trembling while she sings.
The honours of her God.

e 2 Life, death, and hell, and worlds unknown, Hang on his firm decree;

He sits on no precarious throne, Nor borrows leave—to be.

S Chain'd to his throne a volume lies, With all the fates of men; With ev'ry angel's form and size, Drawn by th' eternal pen.

-4 His providence unfolds the book, And makes his counsels shine;

Each opening leaf, and ev'ry stroke, Fulfils some deep design.

6 (Here he exalts neglected worms, To scentres and a crown:

And there, the following page he turns, And treads the monarch down.

6 Not Gabriel asks the reason why, Nor God the reason gives;

Nor dares the fav'rite angel pry Between the folded leaves.)

e 7 My God, I would not long to see My fate, with curious eyes;

What gloomy lines are writ for me, Or what bright scenes may rise.

—8 In thy fair book of life and grace, O may I find my name,

Recorded in some humble place, Beneath my Lord—the Lamb.

Watts.

HYMN 5. L. P. M. St. Helen's. [*] God's Name proclaimed. Ex. xxxiv, 6-8.

A TTEND, my soul, the voice divine, And mark what beaming glories shipe Around thy condescending God!

To us—to us, he still proclaims e His awful, his endearing names;

Attend, and sound them all abroad.

d 2 'Jehovah I, the sovereign Lord,
'The mighty God, by heaven ador'd,

Down to the earth my footsteps bend:

e 'My heart the tenderest pity knows,

'Goodness, full-streaming, wide o'erflows,
'And grace and truth shall never end.

3 'My patience long can crimes endure,

'My pard'ning love is ever sure,

'When penitential sorrow mourns;
'To millions, through unnumber'd years,

'New hope and new delight it bears;
'Yet wrath against the sinner burns.'

o 4 Make haste, my soul, the vision meet,

e All prostrate at thy Sovereign's feet.

And drink the tuneful accents in: o Speak on, my Lord, repeat the voice, Diffuse these heart-expanding joys, Till heaven repeat the rapt'rous scene.

Doddridge.

HYMN 6. C. M. Colchester. [*]

Adam: or, the Fall of Man. Gen. iii. N man, in his own image made,

How much did God bestow! The whole creation homage paid. And own'd him Lord below.

o 2 He dwelt in Eden's garden, stor'd With sweets for ev'ry sense; And there, with his descending Lord.

He walk'd in confidence.

e 3 But oh! by sin how quickly chang'd! His honour forfeited:

His heart, from God and truth estrang'd, His conscience, fill'd with dread.

-4 Now from his Maker's voice he flies. Which was before his joy: And thinks to hide amidst the trees.

From an all-seeing eye.

5 Compell'd to answer to his name,— With stubbornness and pride, He cast on God himself the blame, Nor once for mercy cried.

o 6 But grace, unask'd, his heart subdu'd. And all his guilt forgave:

And all his guitt longare.

By faith the promis'd Seed he view'd,

Newton.

HYMN 7. H. M. Allerton. [*]

Types of the Messiah. Heb. iv, 2.

SRAEL, in ancient days, Not only had a view Of Sinai in a blaze,

But learn'd the gospel too: The types and figures were a glass, In which they saw the Saviour's face. 2 The paschal sacrifice,
And blood-besprinkled door,—
Seen with enlighten'd eyes,
And once apply'd with power,
Would teach the need of other blood,

To reconcile an angry God.

3 The lamb, the dove, set forth His perfect innocence, Whose blood of matchless worth Should be the soul's defence:

For he who can for sin atone, Must have no failings of his own.

4 The scape-goat, on his head, The people's trespass bore; And, to the desert led,

Was to be seen no more:
In him our Surety seem'd to say,
d 'Behold, I bear your sins away.'

5 Dipp'd in his fellow's blood,
 The living bird went free:
 The type, well understood,
 Express'd the sinner's plea-

e Describ'd a guilty soul enlarg'd, And by a Saviour's death discharg'd.

o 6 Jesus, I love to trace,
Throughout the sacred page,
The footsteps of thy grace,
The same in ev'ry age!

O grant that I may faithful be
To clearer light vouchsaf'd to me!

Cowper.

HYMN 8. 7's. Redeeming Love. [*]
Birth of the Saviour.

1 ARK! the herald angels sing,
'Glory to the new-born King!
'Peace on earth, and mercy mild.

God and sinners reconcil'd!

2 Joyful, all ye nations, rise, Join the triumph of the skies; With th' angelic host proclaim, Christ is born in Bethlehem.

4 Veil'd in flesh—the Godhead see, Hail th' incarnate Deity;

Pleas'd as man with men t' appear, Jesus our Emmanuel here.

- o 5 Hail the heaven-born Prince of Peace! Hail the Sun of Righteousness!
 Light and life to all he brings,
 Ris'n with healing in his wings.
- e 6 Mild, he lays his glory by;
 Born, that man no more may die;
 Born, to raise the sons of earth;
 Born, to give them second birth. Rippon's Col.

HYMN 9. C. M. Bethlehem. [*]

Joy of Angels at the Saviour's birth.

- 1 WHILE shepherds watch'd their flocks
 All seated on the ground, [by night,
 The angel of the Lord came down,
 And glory shone around.
- 2 'Fear not,' said he, for mighty dread Had seiz'd their troubled mind, o 'Glad tidings of great joy I bring, 'To you and all mankind.

b 3 'To you, in David's town, this day, 'Is born of David's line,

'The Saviour, who is Christ the Lord, 'And this shall be the sign:—

4 'The heavenly Babe you there shall find, 'To human view display'd, e 'All meanly wrapp'd in swaddling bands, 'And in a manger laid.'

-5 Thus spake the scraph; and forthwith Appear'd a shining throng

Of angels, praising God, who thus Address'd their joyful song:—

s 6 'All glory be to God on high, 'And to the earth be peace;

Good will henceforth from heaven to men, 'Begin, and never cease.' Patrick or Tate.

HYMN 10. C. M. Devizes. [*] Angel's Song.

o 1'SHEPHERDS, rejoice; lift up your eyes, 'And send your fears away;

'News from the region of the skies—
'Salvation's born to-day!

Select. e 2 'JESUS, the God, whom angels fear, 'Comes down to dwell with you; - To-day he makes his entrance here, 'But not as monarchs do. 3 'No gold, nor purple swaddling bands, 'Nor royal, shining things; 'A manger for his cradle stands, 'And holds the King of kings! o 4 'Go, shepherds, where the Infant lies, 'And see his humble throne; p 'With tears of joy, in all your eyes, 'Go, shepherds, kiss the Son.' -5 Thus Gabriel sang—and straight around, The heavenly armies throng: They tune their harps to lofty sound, And thus conclude the song:s 6 'Glory to God who reigns above, 'Let peace surround the earth; 'Mortals shall know their Maker's love, 'At their Redeemer's birth.' Watts's Lyr. HYMN 11. 8, 6 & 5. Christmas. [*] Çhristmas Morn. IFT up your heads in joyful hope, Salute the happy morn: Each heavenly power, Proclaim the glad hour; 8 Lo, Jesus the Saviour is born! o 2 All glory be to God on high, To him all praise is due; O The promise is seal'd— The Saviour's reveal'd-And proves that the record is true. 8 3 Let joy around like rivers flow: Flow on, and still increase; Spread o'er the glad earth. At Emmanuel's birth— For heaven and earth are at peace.

e 4 Now the good will of God is shown Towards Adam's helpless race: Messiah is come-0

To ransom his own— To save them by infinite grace. • 5 Then let us join the heavens above, Where hymning seraphs sing;

s Join all the glad powers— For their Lord is ours—

Our Prophet, our Priest, and our King. Madan's Col

HYMN 12. C. P. M. Pilgrim. [b]
Infancy of the Saviour.

p 1 O SIGHT of anguish! view it near,— What weeping innocence is here— A manger for his bed!

The brutes yield refuge to his wo—

o 2 Why do no rapid thunders roll? Why do not tempests rock the pole?

e O miracle of grace!

Or why no angels on the wing,
Warm for the honour of their King,

• To punish all the race!

e 3 Tho' now an INFANT bath'd in tears,

• He call'd to form the rolling spheres;

And seraphs own'd his nod!

e Helpless he calls, but men delay:-

e Ungrateful sinners disobey
The first-born Son of God!

-4 Say, radiant seraphs, thron'd in light, o Did love e'er tower so high a flight?

e Or glory sink so low?

—This wonder angels scarce declare; Angels the rapture scarce can bear,

Or equal praise bestow.

e 5 Redemption! 'tis a boundless theme; Thou boundless Mind, our hearts inflame— With ardour from above:

d Words are but faint, let joy express— Vain is mere joy—let actions bless— This prodigy of love.

HYMN 13. C. M. Arundel. [*]
Christ's Ministry. Luke iv, 18, 19.

d 1 HARK,—the glad sound!—the Saviour The Saviour promis'd long! [comes!—Let ev'ry heart prepare a throne—

And ev'ry voice a song.

2 On him the Spirit, largely pour'd, Exerts its sacred fire;

Wisdom and might, and zeal and love, His holy breast inspire.

 S He comes—the pris'ners to release, In Satan's bondage held;

o The gates of brass before him burst— The iron fetters yield!

o 4 He comes—from thickest films of vice To clear the mental ray;

And on the eye-balls of the blind
 To pour celestial day.

e 5 He comes—the broken heart to bind— The bleeding soul to cure;

o And, with the treasures of his grace, T' enrich the humble poor.

6 Our glad hosannas, Prince of Peace,
 Thy welcome shall proclaim;
 And heaven's eternal arches ring
 With thy beloved name.
 Doddridge.

HYMN 14. L. M. Islington. [*]
Christ's Example.

ND is the gospel peace and love? L Such let our conversation be; The serpent blended with the dove,— Wisdom and meek simplicity. 2 Whene'er the angry passions rise, And tempt our thoughts or tongues to strife: To Jesus let us lift our eyes, Bright pattern of the Christian life. 3 O how benevolent and kind! How mild—how ready to forgive! Be this the temper of our mind, And these the rules by which we live. 4 To do his heavenly Father's will. Was his employment and delight: Humility and holy zeal Shone through his life, divinely bright. 5 Dispensing good where'er he came, The labours of his life were love; Then, if we bear the Saviour's name, Steele. By his example let us move.

HYMN 15. L. M. Weldon. [*] Christ's Transfiguration. Matt. xvii, 4.

The various glories of thy face,
What transport pours o'er all our breast,
And charms our cares and woes to rest!
With thee, in the obscurest cell,
On some bleak mountain would I dwell;
Rather than pompous courts behold,
And share their grandeur and their gold.

d 3 Away, ye charms of mortal joy!
Raptures divine my thoughts employ!

o I see the King of glory shine;—

e I feel his love, and call him mine.
—4 On Tabor thus his servants view'd His lustre, when transform'd he stood;

And, bidding earthly scenes farewell, Cried, 'Lord, 'tis pleasant here to dwell.'

—5 Yet still our elevated eyes To nobler visions long to rise;

o That grand assembly would we join, Where all thy saints around thee shine.

d 6 That mount—how bright! those forms—how o 'Tis good to dwell for ever there: [fair!

-Come, death, dear envoy of our God,

And bear me to that blest abode. Doddridge.

HYMN 16. L. M. Dresden. [*] Christ weeping over Jerusalem. Luke xix, 41, 42.

p 1 WHAT venerable sight appears!—
The Son of God, dissolv'd in tears!—
Trace, O my soul, with sad surprise,
The sorrows of a Saviour's eyes.
e 2 For whom, bless'd Jesus, we would know.

Doth such a sacred torrent flow?—
What brother, or what friend of thine,
Is grac'd and mourn'd with drops divine?

-3 Nor brother, there, nor friend I seed But sons of pride and cruelty;

Who like rapacious tigers stood, Impatient, panting for thy blood.

p 4 Dear Lord, and did thy gushing eyes L. Thus stream o'er dying enemies?

And can thy tenderness forget The sinner, humbled at thy feet?

e 5 With deep remorse our bowels move, That we have wrong'd such matchless love;

e Thy gentle pity, Lord, display,

And smile these trembling fears away.

-6 Give us to shine before thy face, Eternal trophies of thy grace;

o Where songs of praise thy saints employ. And mingle with a Saviour's joy. Doddridge,

HYMN 17. 7s. St. John's. [b]

Gethsemane: or, Agony in the Garden. Matt. xxvi, 36-45.

MANY woes had Christ endur'd, L Many sore temptations met, Patient and to pains inur'd!

e But the sorest trial vet

Was to be sustain'd in thee.

a Gloomy—sad—Gethsemane!

e 2 Came at length the dreadful night!

d Vengeance, with his iron rod, Stood, and with collected might, Bruis'd the harmless Lamb of God:

p See, my soul, the Saviour see— Prostrate in Gethsemane.

e 3 There my God bore all my guilt: -This, through grace, can be believ'd!

e But the torments which he felt. Are too vast to be conceiv'd: None can penetrate through thee—

a Doleful—dark—Gethsemane. 4 All my sins against my God—

e All my sins against his laws-All my sins against his blood-All my sins against his cause:—

e Sins as boundless as the sea! Hide me, O Gethsemane!

-5 Here's my claim, and here alone: None a Saviour more can need; Deeds of righteousness I've none; Not a work that I can plead: Not a glimpse of hope for me, Only in Gethsemane.

O 6 Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
One almighty God of love,
Prais'd by all the heavenly host,
In thy shining courts above—
We, poor sinners, gracious Three,
Praise thee for Gethsemane.

Hart.

HYMN 18. C. M. China. [b]

ROM whence these direful omens round, Which heaven and earth amaze!

Wherefore do earthquakes cleave the ground?

Why hides the sun his rays?

Well may the earth astonish'd shake,
 And nature sympathize;
 The sun as darkest night be black—a Their Maker, JESUS—dies.

p 3 Behold, fast streaming from the tree—His all atoning blood!

d Is this the INFINITE?—'tis he— My Saviour and my God.

p 4 For me—these pangs his soul assail, For me—this death is borne; My sins gave sharpness to the nail,

And pointed ev'ry thorn.

-5 Let sin no more my soul enslave;

d Break, Lord, its tyrant chain;

e Oh, save me, whom thou cam'st to save, Nor bleed—nor die in vain.

HYMN 19. L. M. Carthage. Munich. [b *]

1'TIS finish'd:—so the Saviour cried:
And meekly bow'd his head, and died!
'Tis finish'd:—yes, the race is run,—
The battle fought, the vict'ry won.
2 'Tis finish'd—all that Heaven decreed,
And all that ancient prophets said,
Is now fulfill'd, as was design'd,
In me, the Saviour of mankind.
3 'Tis finish'd:—Aaron now no more
Must stain his robes with purple gore;
The sacred veil is rent in twain;
The Jewish rites no more remain.

4 'Tis finish'd:—this my dying groan Shall sins of ev'ry kind atone;

o Millions shall be redeem'd from death,

-By this my last, expiring breath.

- 5 'Tis finish'd:—Heaven is reconcil'd, And all the powers of darkness spoil'd:
- o Peace, love, and happiness, again Return, and dwell with sinful men.
- -6 'Tis finish'd:—let the joyful sound Be heard through all the nations round:

s 'Tis finish'd:—let the echo fly,
Through heaven and hell, through earth and sky.

Dr. Stennet.

HYMN 20. L. M. Dresden. [b *]

Christ's Dying, Rising, and Reigning.

p 1 HE dies!—the Friend of sinners dies! Lo! Salem's daughters weep around!

a A solemn darkness veils the skies!

- d A sudden trembling shakes the ground!
- 2 Come, saints, and drop a tear or two,
 For him who groan'd beneath your load;
- P He shed a thousand drops for you—
 A thousand drops of richer blood.
 - 3 Here's love and grief beyond degree-

a The Lord of glory dies for men!

- o But, lo! what sudden joys we see!
- d Jesus, the dead-revives again!
- o 4 The rising God forsakes the tomb! Up to his Father's court he flies!
- g Cherubic legions guard him home, And shout him welcome to the skies!
- b Break off your tears, ye saints, and tell How high our great Deliv'rer reigns;
- o Sing how he spoil'd the hosts of hell,
- d And led the tyrant, death—in chains.
- s 6 Say, 'Live for ever, glorious King, 'Born to redeem, and strong to save!'
- d Then ask—'O death, where is thy sting? 'And where thy vict'ry, boasting grave?'

Christ's Resurrection. Matt. xxviii, 6.

d 1 HARK! the herald angels say, Christ, the Lord, is risen to-day!

o Raise your joys and triumphs high, Let the glorious tidings fly.

- 2 Love's redeeming work is done!
 Th' battle's fought, the vict'ry won!
 Lo! the sun's eclipse is o'er;
 Lo! he sets in blood no more.
- —3 Vain the stone, the watch, the seal—Christ has burst the gates of hell;

 Death in vain forbids his rise;

 Christ has open'd Paradise.
- o 4 Lives again our glorious king,

d 'Where, O death, is now thy sting?'
e Once he died our souls to save, d 'Where's thy vict'ry, boasting grave?'

· —5 What though once we perish'd all, Partners of our parents' fall;—

o Second life we shall receive, And in Christ for ever live.

Cudworth.

HYMN 22. 7s. Epiphany. [*]

Christ's Ascension.

- 8 1 HAIL, the day that saw him rise, Ravish'd from our wishful eyes;
- e Christ, awhile to mortals given, o Reascends his native heaven:

-There the pompous triumph waits;

- e Lift your heads, eternal gates!
 'Wide unfold the radiant scene,
 'Take the King of glory in!'
- —2 Him though highest heaven receives, Still he loves the earth he leaves; Though returning to his throne, Still he calls mankind his own. Still for us he intercedes, Prevalent, his death he pleads; Next himself prepares a place, Harbinger of human race

e 3 Master, (may we ever say,)
Taken from the world away,
See thy faithful servants, see,
Ever gazing up to thee.
Grant, though parted from our sight,

—High above you azure height,—
Grant our souls may thither rise—
Foll'wing thee beyond the skies.

4 Ever upward let us move,
 Wafted on the wings of love;
 Looking when our Lord shall come—
 Looking for a happier home.

o There we shall with thee remain, Partners of thy endless reign; There thy face unclouded see— Find a heaven of heavens in thee.

HYMN 23. L. M. Oporto. [*] Christ's Death, Resurrection, and Ascension. Acts ii, 32-36. OME, tune, ye saints, your noblest strains, Your dying, rising Lord to sing; And echo, to the heavenly plains, The triumphs of your Saviour King. 2 In songs of grateful rapture tell, How he subdu'd your potent foes; Subdu'd the powers of death and hell, And, dying, finish'd all your woes. 3 Then to his glorious throne on high, Return'd; while hymning angels round. Through the bright arches of the sky. The God, the conquering God, resound. 4 Almighty love, victorious power! Not angel tongues can e'er display The wonders of that dreadful hour-The joys of that illustrious day. 5 Then well may mortals try in vain, In vain their feeble voices raise; Yet Jesus hears the humble strain. And kindly owns our wish to praise. 6 Dear Saviour, let thy wondrous grace Fill ev'ry heart, and every tongue; Till the full glories of thy face Steele. Inspire a sweeter, nobler song.

HYMN 24. 7s. Redeeming Love. [*] Christ's Resurrection and Ascension. Matt. xxviii, 2.

d 1 A NGELS, roll the rock away!
Death, yield up the mighty prey!

u 2 Shout, ye seraphs; Gabriel, raise Thine eternal trump of praise;

Let the earth's remotest bound Echo to the blissful sound.

o 3 Now, ye saints, lift up your eyes; See the Conqueror mount the skies; Troops of angels on the road, Hail and sing th' incarnate God.

g 4 Heaven unfolds her portals wide—Glorious Hero, through them ride;
King of glory, mount thy throne;
Boundless empire is thine own.

s Praise him, ye celestial choirs, Praise, and sweep your golden lyres; Praise him in the noblest songs, From ten thousand thousand tongues.

-6 Let Emmanuel be ador'd-d Ransom, Mediator, Lord;

o To creation's utmost bound.

Let th' immortal praise resound.

Jesus is King. Rev. xiv, 3.

ET us awake our joys, ■ Strike up with cheerful voice— Each creature, sing; Angels—begin the song, Mortals the strains prolong,

In accents sweet and strong,-

'Jesus is king.' -2 Proclaim abroad his name, Tell of his matchless fame—

What wonders done; Shout through hell's dark profound, Let the whole earth resound, Till the high heavens rebound—

'The vict'ry's won.'

-8 He vanquish'd sin and hell, And the last foe will quell;

e Mourners, rejoice! His dying love adore:

o Praise him, now rais'd in power,

And triumph ever more, With a glad voice.

o 4 All hail the glorious day, When through the heavenly way,

Lo, he shall come!

e While they who pierc'd him wail, His promise shall not fail;

• Saints, see your King prevail; Come, dear Lord, come!

HYMN 28. H. M. Triumph. [*]
The Kingdom of Christ. Phil. iv, 4.

BEJOICE—the Lord is King! Your God and King adore;

Mortals, give thanks and sing, And triumph evermore:

Lift up the heart, lift up the voice,

Rejoice aloud, ye saints, rejoice.

2 Rejoice—the Saviour reigns!

The God of truth and love; When he had purg'd our stains,

He took his seat above:

Lift up the heart, lift up the voice, Rejoice aloud, ye saints, rejoice.

-3 His kingdom cannot fail;

He rules air, earth, and heaven:

The keys of death and hell Are to our Jesus given:

o Lift up the heart, lift up the voice, Rejoice aloud, ye saints, rejoice.

—5 He all his foes will quell, Will all our sins destroy;

And every bosom swell, With pure seraphic joy:

o Lift up the heart, lift up the voice, Rejoice aloud, ye saints, rejoice.

o 6 Rejoice, in glorious hope; Jesus the Judge will come—

And take his servants up To their eternal home:

g We soon shall hear th' archangel's voice:
The trump of God shall sound—rejoice! Riggon

Worthy the Lamb.

-2 All they around the throne

o Cheerfully join in one, Praising his Name;

We, who have felt his blood Sealing our peace with God, Sound his dear name abroad-

Worthy the Lamb.

-3 Join, all ye ransom'd race, Our Lord and God to bless;

Praise ye his name:

o In him we will rejoice, And make a joyful noise,

o Shouting with heart and voice—

Worthy the Lamb.

Praise to the Redeemer.

1 HAIL, thou once despised Jesus!
Thou didst free salvation bring;

By thy death thou didst release us From thy tyrant's deadly sting.

2 Paschal Lamb, by God appointed, All our sins on thee were laid;

Great High Priest, by God anointed, Thou hast full atonement made.

3 Contrite sinners are forgiven, Through the virtue of thy blood: Open'd is the gate of heaven,

Peace is made for man with God.

All the heavenly hosts adore thee, Seated at thy Father's side.

HYMN 36. L. M. Carthage. [b]

Sorrow for Sin.

H that my load of sin were gone! Oh that I could at last submit! At Jesus' feet to lay me down----

To lay my soul at Jesus' feet.

e 2 Rest for my soul I long to find: Saviour of all, if mine thou art-Give me thy meek, thy lowly mind, And stamp thine image on my heart.

-3 Break off the yoke of inbred sin, And fully set my spirit free: I cannot rest till pure within,-Till I am wholly lost in thee. 4 Fain would I learn of thee, my God;

Thy light and easy burden prove— The cross, all stain'd with hallow'd blood— The labour of thy dying love.

d 5 I would—but thou must give the power;

My heart from ev'ry sin release; Bring near, bring near the joyful hour, And fill me with thy perfect peace.

Sinner submitting to God.

1 WEARY of struggling with my pain,
Hopeless to burst this sinful chain,

2 From my own works at last I cease—God, who creates, must seal my peace;
Fruitless my toil, and vain my care,
Unless thy sovereign grace I share.

e 3 Lord, I despair myself to heal;
I see my sin, but cannot feel;
I cannot, till thy Spirit blow,

And bid th' obedient waters flow.

4 'Tis thine a heart of flesh to give;

Thy gifts I only can receive; Here, then, to thee I all resign; To draw, redeem, and seal is thine.

And make the Lord my friend?

-2 Friends and ministers said much. · The gospel to enforce;

e But my blindness still was such, I chose a legal course:

Much I fasted, watch'd, and strove, Scarce would shew my face abroad:

—3 The faith that unites to the Lamb, And brings such salvation as this, Is more than mere fancy, or name—d The work of God's Spirit it is.

4 It treads on the world, and on hell,
 It vanquishes death and despair,

The New Convert.

1 THE new-born child of gospel grace, Like some fair tree when summer's nigh, Beneath EMMANUEL'S shining face, Lifts up his blooming branch on high.

- Nor has he learn'd to whom he owes
 The strength and peace his soul enjoys.
- e 3 But sin soon darts its cruel sting; And, comforts sinking day by day, What seem'd his own, a self-fed spring, Proves but a brook that glides away.

HYMN 48. C. M. Mear. [*]

Zeal, True and False.

1 ZEAL is that pure and heavenly flame, The fire of love supplies;

e While that which often bears the name, Is self in a disguise.

e 2 True zeal is merciful and mild, Can pity and forbear;

d The false is headstrong, fierce and wild, And breathes revenge and war.

—8 While zeal for truth the Christian warms, He knows the worth of peace;

But self contends for names and forms, Its party to increase.

4 Zeal has attain'd its highest aim, Its end is satisfy'd,

If sinners love the Saviour's name; Nor seeks it ought beside.

d 5 But self, however well employ'd, Has its own ends in view; And says, as boasting Jehu cry'd,

'Come, see what I can do.'

—6 Self may its poor reward obtain, And be applauded here; But zeal the best applause will gain.

When Jesus shall appear.

Oh that I were as in months past. Job xxix, 2.

1 SWEET was the time, when first I felt
The Saviour's pard'ning blood,
Apply'd to cleanse my soul from guilt,
And bring me home to God.

o 2 Soon as the morn the light reveal'd, His praises tun'd my tongue;

And when the ev'ning shades prevail'd, His love was all my song.

HYMN 54. 7s. Fairfax. [b]

1'TIS a point I long to know,—
Oft it causes anxious thought:—

- e Do I love the Lord, or no? Am I his, or am I not?
 - 2 If I love, why am I thus? Why this dull, this lifeless frame? Hardly, sure, can they be worse, Who have never heard his name.
 - 3 Could my heart so hard remain, Prayer a task and burden prove— Ev'ry trifle give me pain— If I knew a Saviour's love?
- e 4 When I turn my eyes within, All is dark, and vain, and wild; Fill'd with unbelief and sin— Can I deem myself a child? 5 If I pray, or hear, or read, Sin is mix'd with all I do:

d You, who love the Lord indeed, Tell me—is it so with you?

- 6 Yet I mourn my stubborn will, Find my sin a grief and thrall; Should I grieve for what I feel, If I did not love at all!
 - 7 Could I joy his saints to meet, Choose the ways I once abhorr'd— Find, at times, the promise sweet, If I did not love the Lord?
- —8 Lord, decide the doubtful case! Thou, who art thy people's sun, Shine upon thy work of grace, If it be indeed begun.
 - 9 Let me love thee more and more, If I love at all, I pray; If I have not lov'd before, Help me to begin to-day.

And keep my weak graces alive. And set up thy rest in my heart. 3 If, when I have put thee to grief, And madly to folly return'd, Thy goodness has been my relief. And lifted me up as I mourn'd; O Spirit of pity and grace, Relieve me again and restore: My spirit in holiness raise. To fall, and to grieve thee, no more.

But it has been in such a way, As almost drove me to despair.

- 3 I hop'd that in some favour'd hour, At once he'd answer my request; And by his love's constraining power, Subdue my sins, and give me rest.
- e 4 Instead of this, he made me feel The hidden evils of my heart; And let the angry powers of hell Assault my soul in ev'ry part.
- a 5 Yea, more—with his own hand he seem'd Intent to aggravate my wo; Cross'd all the fair designs I schem'd, Blasted my gourds, and laid me low.
- e 6 Lord, why is this? I trembling cry'd, Wilt thou pursue thy worm to death?
- d ''Tis in this way (the Lord reply'd,)
 'I answer prayer for grace and faith.
 - 7 'These inward trials I employ,
 'From self and pride to set thee from
 - 'From self and pride to set thee free,
 'And break thy schemes of earthly joy,

HYMN 57. L. M. Pleyel's. [*] Inconstancy lamented.

1 DEAR Jesus, when, when shall it be, That I no more shall break with thee? When will this war of passion cease, And I enjoy a lasting peace?

HYMN 58. L. M. Bath. [b *]
Conflict between Sin and Holiness. Gal. v. 17.

1 WHAT jarring natures dwell within— Imperfect grace, remaining sin! Not this can reign, nor that prevail, Though each by turns my heart assail.

- e 2 Now I complain, and groan, and die-
- o Now raise my songs of triumph high;
- o Sing a rebellious passion slain, e Or mourn to feel it live again.
- o 3 One happy hour beholds me rise. Borne unwards to my native skies: When faith assists my soaring flight,
- To realms of joy, and worlds of light. e 4 Scarce a few hours or minutes roll.

Ere earth reclaims my captive soul; -I feel its sympathetic force,

And headlong urge my downward course.

e 5 How short the joys thy visits give! How long thine absence, Lord, I grieve! What clouds obscure my rising sun, Or interrupt its rays at noon!

-6 Great God, assist me through the fight; Make me to triumph in thy might: Thou the desponding heart canst raise; The vict'ry mine, and thine the praise.

Hope encouraged. Ps. xlii, 5.

> HYMN 63. L. M. Psalm 97th. [b] Christ, the Believer's Ark. 1 Pet. iii, 20, 21.

1 THE deluge, at the Almighty's call,
In what impetuous streams it fell!
Swallow'd the mountains in its rage,
And swept a guilty world to hell.
2 In vain the tallest sons of pride
Fled from the close pursuing wave;
Nor could their mightiest towers defend,
Nor swiftness 'scape, nor courage save.

e 3 How dire the wreck! how loud the roar!
How shrill the universal cry—
Of millions in the last despair—
Re-echo'd from the low'ring sky.

e 4 Yet Noah, humble, happy saint, Surrounded with the chosen few, Sat in his ark, secure from fear, And sang the grace that steer'd him through.

o 5 So may I sing, in Jesus safe, While storms of vengeance round me fall; Conscious how high my hopes are fix'd, Beyond what shakes this earthly ball.

—6 Enter thine ark, while patience waits, Nor ever quit that sure retreat;

o Then the wide flood that buries earth, Shall waft thee to a fairer seat.

s 7 Nor wreck nor ruin there is seen;
There not a wave of trouble rolls;
But the bright rainbow round the throne,
Seals endless life to all their souls. Doddridge.

HYMN 64. 8 & 7. Emmaus. [*]

Christ, a Friend closer than a Brother. Prov. xviii, 24.

NE there is, above all others,
Well deserves the name of Friend;
His is love beyond a brother's,
Costly, free, and knows no end:

They who once his kindness prove, Find it everlasting love.

e 2 Which of all our friends, to save us Could, or would have shed their blood?

• But our Jesus died to have us, Reconcil'd in him to God:

• This is boundless love indeed!
Jesus is a friend in need.

e 3 When he liv'd on earth abased, Friend of sinners was his name;

Now above all glory raised,
 He rejoices in the same:
 Still he calls them brethren, friends,
 And to all their wants attends.

e 4 Oh for grace our hearts to soften! Teach us, Lord, at length to love;

We, alas! forget too often,

What a Friend we have above:

• But when home our souls are brought, We will love thee as we ought. Newton.

HYMN 65. C. M. St. Ann's. Mear. [b]

Manna, or Daily Supply. Exod. xvi, 18.

1 MANNA to Israel well supply'd The want of other bread;

While God is able to provide, His people will be fed.

2 Of his kind care, how sweet a proof! It suited every taste:

Who gather'd most had just enough, Enough who gather'd least.

o 3 'Tis still our gracious Lord provides,
Our comforts and our cares;
His own unerring hand provides.

And gives us each our shares.

• 4 He knows how much the weak can bear,
And helps them when they cry;

• The strongest have no strength to spare, For such he'll strongly try.

—5 Daily they saw the manna come, And cover all the ground;

But what they try'd to keep at home, Corrupted soon was found.

- e 6 Vain their attempts to store it up; This was to tempt the Lord:
- o Israel must live by faith and hope, And not upon a hoard.

HYMN 66. C. M. York. [*] Joys of Saints. Neh. ix, 10.

Of Jesus, and his word?

-3 What peaceful hours I once enjoy'd! How sweet their mem'ry still!

e But they have left an aching void, The world can never fill. -4 Return, O holy Dove, return, Sweet messenger of rest;

I hate the sins that made thee mourn, And drove thee from my breast,

5 The dearest idol I have known, Whate'er that idol be—

-3 No, let me rather freely yield What most I prize, to thee,

Who never hast a good withheld, Of wilt withhold from me.

4 Thy favour, all my journey through, Thou art engag'd to grant;

My Redeemer liveth. Job xix, 25. KNOW that my Redeemer lives; What comforts this sweet sentence gives! He lives, he lives, who once was dead, He lives, my ever living head! 2 He lives—triumphant from the grave, He lives—eternally to save; He lives-all glorious in the sky,-He lives—exalted there on high. 3 He lives—to bless me with his love, He lives—to plead for me above; He lives-my hungry soul to feed, He lives—to help in time of need. 4 He lives—to grant me rich supply, He lives—to guide me with his eye; He lives—to comfort me when faint, He lives—to hear my soul's complaint. 5 He lives—to silence all my fears, He lives—to stoop and wipe my tears;

He lives—to calm my troubled heart,
He lives—all blessings to impart.
6 He lives—my kind, wise, heavenly Friend,
He lives—and loves me to the end;
He lives—and while he lives I'll sing,
He lives—my prophet, priest, and king.
7 He lives—and grants me daily breath,
He lives—and I shall conquer death!
He lives—my mansion to prepare,
He lives—to bring me safely there.

1 THE Lord on mortal worms looks down From his celestial throne;

And when the wicked swarm around, He well discerns his own.

e 2 He sees the tender hearts, that mourn
The scandals of the times:

And join their efforts to oppose

The wide prevailing crimes.

-3 Low in the social band he bows
His still attentive ear;

And, while his angels sing around, Delights their voice to hear.

o 4 The chronicles of heaven shall keep Their words in transcript fair;

In the Redeemer's book of life, Their names recorded are.

d 5 'Yes,' saith the Lord, 'the world shall know 'These humble souls are mine:

'These, when my jewels I produce,

'Shall in full lustre shine.

6 'When deluges of fiery wrath

'My foes away shall bear;

'That hand which strikes the wicked through, 'Shall all my children spare.' Doddridge.

HYMN 118. C. M. Windsor. [b] Prayer for spiritual Healing.

1 THOU great Physician of the soul, To thee I bring my case;

My raging malady control, And heal me by thy grace.

2 Help me to state my whole complaint; But where shall I begin? Nor words, nor thoughts can fully paint
This worst distemper—sin

This worst distemper—sin.

8 It lies not in a single part,

But through my frame is spread;

A burning fever in my heart,

A palsy in my head.

4 It makes me deaf, and dumb, and blind, And impotent, and lame;

It overclouds, and fills my mind, With folly, fear, and shame.

5 (A thousand evil thoughts intrude, Tumultuous in my breast,

Which indispose me for my food, And rob me of my rest.)

6 Lord, I am sick; regard my cry, And set my spirit free;

Say, canst thou let a sinner die, Who longs to live to thee?

HYMN 119. L. P. M. Sheffield. [b*] Efficacy of God's Word. Jer. xxiii, 29.

e 1 WITH rev'rend awe, tremendous Lord, We hear the thunders of thy word;

o The pride of Lebanon it breaks:
o Swift the celestial fire descends.

The flinty rock in pieces rends,

g And earth to its deep centre shakes.

2 Array'd in majesty divine, Here sanctity and justice shine, e And horrour strikes the rebel through;

g While loud this awful voice makes known The wonders which thy sword hath done, a And what thy vengeance yet will do.

o 3 So spread the honours of thy name;

g The terrours of a God proclaim;

Thick let the pointed arrows fly;—
e Till sinners, humbled in the dust,

Shall own the execution just,

—And bless the hand by which they die.

o 4 Then clear the dark, tempestuous day, And radiant beams of love display; Each prostrate soul let mercy raise;

e So shall the bleeding captive feel.

Thy word, that gave the wound, can heal, o And change their notes to songs of praise.

HYMN 120. C. M. Abridge. Barby. [*] Light and Glory of the Word.

1 THE Spirit breathes upon the word, And brings the truth to sight;

Precepts and promises afford A sanctifying light.

2 A glory gilds the sacred page,
Majestic like the sun;
—It gives a light to every age,
It gives—but borrows none.

-3 The hand that gave it still supplies
The gracious light and heat;

o His truths upon the nations rise,— They rise, but never set.

6 4 Let everlasting thanks be thine,
 For such a bright display,
 As makes a world of darkness shine,
 With beams of heavenly day.

—5 My soul rejoices to pursue
The steps of Him I love,

g Till glory breaks upon my view, In brighter worlds above.

HYMN 121. 7s. St. John's. [*] Sabbath Morning.

SAFELY through another week God has brought us on our way;

Let us now a blessing seek, Waiting in his courts to-day:

- o Day of all the week the best; Emblem of eternal rest:
- —2 While we seek supplies of grace, Through the dear Redeemer's name;
- s Shew thy reconciling face—
 Take away our sin and shame:
 From our worldly cares set free,
 May we rest this day in thee.

—3 Here we come thy name to praise;
Let us feel thy presence near:
May thy glory meet our eyes,
While we in thy house appear:
Here afford us, Lord, a taste
Of our everlasting feast.

4 May the Gospel's joyful sound Conquer sinners, comfort saints,— Make the fruits of grace abound,— Bring relief from all complaints:

o Thus let all our Sabbaths prove, Till we join the church above.

HYMN 122. H. M. Bethesda. [*]

1 WELCOME, delightful morn, Thou day of sacred rest; I hail thy kind return,

Lord, make these moments blest.

-From the low train of mortal toys,

o I soar to reach immortal joys.

—2 Now may the King descend, And fill his throne of grace; Thy sceptre, Lord, extend, While saints address thy face:

Let sing feel thy quick ning word, And learn to know and fear the Lord.

o 3 Descend, celestial Dove,
With all thy quick'ning powers;
Disclose a Saviour's love,
And bless the sacred hours:

o Then shall my soul new life obtain, Nor Sabbaths be indulg'd in vain. Hayward.

HYMN 123. C. M. Sunday. [*] The Lord's Day.

1 THE Lord of Sabbath let us praise, In concert with the blest, Who, joyful, in harmonious lays Employ an endless rest.

e 2 Lord, may we still remember thee, And more in knowledge grow. —And may we more of glory see, While waiting here below.

o 3 On this glad day a brighter scene Of glory was display'd,

HYMN 124. C. M. Hymn 2d. [*b]

- e 1 WHILST thee I seek, protecting Power! Be my vain wishes still'd:
- —And may this consecrated hour With better hopes be fill'd.
- e 2 Thy love the power of thought bestow'd,— To thee my thoughts would soar:

Thy mercy o'er my life has flow'd;
That mercy I adore.

-3 In each event of life, how clear

e Thy ruling hand I see!

e Each blessing to my soul most dear,

- Because conferr'd by thee.

o 4 In every joy that crowns my do

e In every pain I bear,

o My heart shall find delight in praise,

e Or seek relief in prayer.

o 5 When gladness wings my favour'd hour, Thy love my thoughts shall fill;

e Resign'd, when storms of sorrow lower,
My soul shall meet thy will.

—6 My lifted eye, without a tear, The gath'ring storm shall see,

o My steadfast heart shall know no fear;
That heart will rest on thee. Williams

HYMN 125. C. M. St. Ann's. [*b]

1 O LORD, our languid souls inspire, For here we trust thou art!

Send down a coal of heavenly fire, To warm each waiting heart.

2 Shew us some token of thy love, Our fainting hope to raise;

And pour thy blessing from above, That we may render praise.

3 Within these walls let holy praise, And love and concord dwell;

e Here give the troubled conscience peace, The wounded spirit heal.

4 The feeling heart, the melting eye, The humble mind bestow;

e And shine upon us from on high, To make our graces grow.

—5 May we in faith receive thy word,— In faith present our prayers;

e And in the presence of our Lord, Unbosom all our cares.

 6 And may the gospel's joyful sound, Enforc'd by mighty grace,
 Awaken many sinners round,

To come, and fill the place.

HYMN 126. 7s. Fairfax. [b] A Blessing humbly requested.

1 L ORD, we come before thee new; At thy feet we humbly bow;

e Oh do not our suit disdain! Shall we seek thee, Lord, in vain?

2 Lord, on thee our souls depend; In compassion, now descend;

-Fill our hearts with thy rich grace; • Tune our lips to sing thy praise.

—3 In thine own appointed way,

a Now we seek thee, here we stay;
Lord we know not how to go,
Till a blessing thou bestow.

—4 Send some message from thy word,
 That may joy and peace afford;
 Let thy Spirit now impart
 Full salvation to each heart.

- 6 Comfort those who weep and mourn;
 Let the time of joy return;
 Those who are cast down, lift up,
 Make them strong in faith and hope.
- -6 Grant that all may seek, and find Thee a God supremely kind: Heal the sick, the captive free; Let us all rejoice in thee.

HYMN 127. 8 & 7. Love Divine. [*]

OVE divine, all love excelling!
Joy of heaven, to earth come down!

Fix in us thy humble dwelling:

All thy faithful mercies crown.

e Jesus, thou art all compassion!

Pure, unbounded love, thou art!

o Visit us with thy salvation, Enter ev'ry trembling heart.

a 2 Breathe, O breathe, thy loving Spirit Into ev'ry troubled breast!

e Let us all in thee inherit,

Let us find thy promis'd rest.
-Take away the power of sinning,

Alpha and Omega be;

- o End of faith, as its beginning, Set our hearts at liberty.
- —3 Come, Almighty to deliver, Let us all thy life receive! Suddenly return—and never—e Never more thy temples leave!

Then we should be always blessing, Serve thee as thy hosts above;

- o Pray, and praise thee without ceasing,—Glory in thy precious love.
- —4 Finish, then, thy new creation;
 Pure, unspotted may we be;
 Let us see thy great salvation,

Till in heaven we take our place;

Till we cast our crowns before thee,

Lost in wonder, love, and praise! Madan's Col.

HYMN 128. C. M. Reading. [b *] Seed in different Grounds. Matt. xiii, 3.

1 YE sons of earth, prepare the plough—Break up your fallow ground:

The sower is gone forth to sow, And scatter blessings round.

2 The seed that finds a stony soil, Shoots forth a hasty blade; But ill represent the server's toil

But ill repays the sower's toil,

Soon wither'd, scorch'd, and dead.

The thorny ground is sure to balk

All hopes of harvest there; We find a tall and sickly stalk,

But not the fruitful ear.

4 The beaten path and highway side Receive the trust in vain;

The watchful birds the prey divide, And pick up all the grain.

o 5 But where the Lord of grace and power Has bless'd the happy field;

How plenteous is the golden store,

The deep wrought furrows yield

The deep wrought furrows yield!

• 6 Father of mercies, we have need
Of thy preparing grace,

-Let the same hand that gives the seed, Provide a fruitful place. Cowper.

HYMN 133. C. M. Zion. Hymn 2d. [*b] The Lord's Prayer.

1 PATHER of all, we bow to thee, Who dwell'st in heaven ador'd; But present still through all thy works, The universal Lord.

2 For ever hallowed be thy name, By all below the skies;

And may thy kingdom still advance, Till grace to glory rise.

3 Thy glorious purpose, Lord, fulfil; Let all thy glory see;

And, as in heaven thy will is done, On earth so let it be.

4 Our wants with every morning grow, With food these wants supply;

And on our souls the Bread bestow To eat—and never die!

5 Our sins before thee we confess; O may they be forgiven!

As we to others mercy shew, We mercy beg of heaven.

6 Still let thy grace our life direct; From evil guard our way; And in temptation's fatal path

And in temptation's fatal path Permit us not to stray.

7 For thine's the power, the kingdom thine,
All glory's due to thee:
Thine from eternity they were,
And thine shall ever be.

HYMN 134. L. M. Armley. [b*] Exhortation to Prayer.

THAT various hindrances we meet, In coming to a mercy seat! Yet who, that knows the worth of prayer, But wishes to be often there? 2 Prayer makes the dark'ned cloud withdraw; Prayer climbs the ladder Jacob saw: Gives exercise to faith and love: Brings every blessing from above. 3 Restraining prayer, we cease to fight; Praver makes the Christian's armour bright; And Satan trembles when he sees The weakest saint upon his knees. e 4 While Moses stood with arms spread wide, Success was found on Israel's side: But when through weariness they fail'd. That moment Amalek prevail'd. 5 Have you no words? Ah, think again; Words flow apace when you complain, And fill a fellow-creature's ear With the sad tale of all your care. 6 Were half the breath thus vainly spent, To heaven in supplication sent, Your cheerful song would oft'ner be,

"Hear what the Lord hath done for me." Compar.

1 IN themselves as weak as worms,
How can poor believers stand,
When temptations, foes, and storms,
Press them close on every hand?
2 Weak indeed they feel they are,
But they know the throne of grace;
And the God, who answers prayer,
Helps them when they seek his face.
3 Though the Lord awhile delay,
Succour they at length obtain;

He who taught their hearts to pray,

Will not let them cry in vain.

4 Wrestling prayer can wonders do, Bring relief in deepest straits; Prayer can force a passage through Iron bars and brazen gates.

HYMN 136. C. M. Bangor. [b] Public Fast. Joel i, 14.

SEE, gracious Lord, before thy throne

Thy mourning people bend! Tis on thy sovereign grace alone,

Our humble hopes depend.

e 2 Tremendous judgments, from thy hand, Thy dreadful powers display;

Yet mercy spares this guilty land, And still we live to pray.

p 3 How chang'd, alas! are truths divine, For errour, guilt, and shame!

What impious numbers, bold in sin, Disgrace the Christian name.

-4 O turn us, turn us, mighty Lord,

By thy resistless grace;
Then shall our hearts obey thy word,
And humbly seek thy face.

o 5 Then, should insulting foes invade,

We shall not sink in fear; o Secure of never-failing aid,

When God, our God, is near.

Public Fast. Gen. xviii, 23-32.

1 WHEN Abrah'm, full of sacred awe, Before Jehovah stood;

And with a humble, fervent prayer,
For guilty Sodom su'd:—

2 With what success, what wondrous grace—Was his petition crown'd!

The Lord would spare, if in that place Ten righteous men were found.

3 And could a single holy soul So rich a boon obtain?

Great God, and shall a nation pray,

And plead with thee in vain?

o 4 Still we are thine—we bear thy name; Here yet is thine abode;

o Long has thy presence bless'd our land-

Forsake us not, O God!

HYMN 138. L. M. Worship. [b]

- e 1 O RIGHTEOUS God, thou judge supreme, We tremble at thy dreadful name!

 And all our crying guilt we own,
 In dust and tears before thy throne.
- e 2 So manifold our crimes have been, Such crimson tincture dyes our sin, That, could we all its horrours know, Our streaming eyes with blood might flow

o 3 Estrang'd from reverential awe, We trample on thy sacred law:

p And though such wonders grace has done, Anew we crucify thy Son.

e 4 Justly might this polluted land Prove all the vengeance of thy hand;

- a And, bath'd in heaven, thy sword might come, To drink our blood and seal our doom.

 Trembling in silence at his bar,
 Thou earth, attend thy Maker's cause.
- d 2 Israel, appear; present thy plea; And charge th' Almighty to his face; Say, if his rules oppressive be; Say, if defective be his grace.

2 S Eternal Judge, the action cease; Our lips are seal'd in conscious shame:

b 'Tis ours in sackcloth to confess,

-And thine, the sentence to proclaim. 4 Ten thousand witnesses arise; Thy mercies and our crimes appear More than the stars that deck the skies.

And all our dreadful guilt declare.

e 5 How shall we come before thy face. And in thine awful presence bow? What off'rings can secure thy grace, Or calm the terrours of thy brow?

e 6 Thousands of rams in vain might bleed: Rivers of oil might blaze in vain; Or the first-born's devoted head With horrid gore thine altar stain.

-7 But thy own Lamb, all-gracious God, Whom impious sinners dar'd to slay!

o Has sovereign virtue in his blood To purge the nation's guilt away.

-8 With humble faith to that we fly: With that may we be sprinkled o'er: Trembling no more in dust we lie, And dread thy hand and bar no more. Dodings.

Prayer for a sick Minister. THOU, before whose gracious throne We bow our suppliant spirit down: View the sad breast, the streaming eye, And let our sorrows pierce the sky. 2 Thou know'st the anxious cares we feel. And all our trembling lips would tell: Thou only canst assuage our grief, And yield our wo-fraught heart relief. 3 With power benign, thy servant spare, Nor turn aside thy people's prayer; Avert thy swift descending stroke, Nor smite the shepherd of the flock. 4 Restore him, sinking to the grave; Stretch out thine arm, make haste to save; Back to our hopes and wishes give, And bid our friend and father live. 5 Bound to each soul by tenderest ties, In every breast his image lies; Thy pitying aid, O God, impart, Nor rend him from each bleeding heart. 6. Yet if our supplications fail, And prayers and tears can nought prevail; Be thou his strength, be thou his stay, And guide him safe to endless day. Evan's Col.

Longing for the promised Spread of the Gospel. Dan. ii, 45.

1 XERT thy power, thy rights maintain,

e Insulted—everlasting King!

- The influence of thy crown increase, And strangers to thy footstool bring.
- e 2 We long to see that happy time, That dear, expected, blessed day!

• When countless myriads of our race The second Adam shall obey.

- —3 The prophecies must be fulfill'd,
 Though earth and hell should dare oppose;
 The Stone-cut from the mountain's side,
 Though unobserv'd, to empire grows.
 - 4 Soon shall the blended Image fall,—Brass, silver, iron, gold, and clay; And superstition's gloomy reign To light and liberty give way.
- 5 In one sweet symphony of praise,
 o Gentile and Jew shall then unite;
 And Infidelity, asham'd,
 Sink in th' abyss of endless night.
 6 Soon Afric's long enslaved sons

6 Soon Afric's long enslaved sons
Shall join with Europe's polish'd race,
To celebrate, in different tongues,
The glories of redeeming grace.

g 7 From east to west, from north to south, Emmanuel's kingdom shall extend;

—And every man, in every face,
Shall meet a brother and a friend.

Voke.

HYMN 183. C. M. Mitcham. [*]

Prayer for the Success of Missions. Ps. lxxii, 7, 8.

ORD, send thy word, and let it fly, Arm'd with thy Spirit's power;

o Ten thousands shall confess its sway, And bless the saving hour.

o 2 Beneath the influence of thy grace,
The barren wastes shall rise,
With sudden greens, and fruits array'd—

Z A blooming Paradise.

-3 True holiness shall strike its root In each regen'rate heart;— Shall in a growth divine arise,

And heavenly fruits impart.

4 Peace, with her olives crown'd, shall stretch Her wings from shore to shore:

No trump shall rouse the rage of war. Nor murd'rous cannon roar.

-5 Lord, for those days we wait—those days Are in thy word foretold:

o Fly swifter, sun, and stars, and bring This promis'd age of gold.

e 6 Amen—with joy divine, let earth's Unnumber'd myriads cry:

g Amen—with joy divine, let heaven's Gibbons. Unnumber'd choirs reply.

HYMN 184. C. M. Canterbury. [*]

Prayer for Missionaries.

REAT God, the nations of the earth Are by creation thine;

And in thy works, by all beheld, Thy radiant glories shine.

o 2 But, Lord, thy greater love has sent Thy gospel to mankind:

Unveiling what rich stores of grace Are treasur'd in thy mind.

g 3 Lord, when shall these glad tidings spread— The spacious earth around; Till every tribe and every soul

Shall hear the joyful sound. p 4 Oh when shall Afric's sable sons

Enjoy the heavenly word? And vassals long enslav'd become

The freemen of the Lord!

e 5 When shall th' untutor'd Heathen tribes, A dark, bewilder'd race,

Sit down at our Emmanuel's feet, And learn and see his grace?

6 Haste, sovereign Mercy, and transform Their cruelty to love:

Soften the tiger to the Lamb, \pmb{The} vulture to a dove.

7 Smile, Lord, on each divine attempt

To spread the gospel's rays!

HYMN 185. 10s. Walworth. [*] Prayer for the Latter Day Glory.

ORD of all worlds, incline thy bounteousear, ■ Thy children's voice, in tender mercy, hear. Bear thy blest promise, fix'd as hills, in mind, And shed renewing grace on lost mankind: O let thy Spirit like soft dews descend:— Thy gospel run to earth's remotest end. 2 Let Zion's walls before thee ceaseless stand, Dear as thine eye, and graven on thy hand; From earth's far regions Jacob's sons restore. Oppress'd by man, and scourg'd by thee, no more; Enrich'd with gold, adorn'd with heavenly grace. Truth their sole guide, and all their pleasure praise. 3 Then Satan's kingdom shall from earth retime. Dead forms dissolve, and furious zeal expire. The Beast's fell throne shall darkness dire surround. Mohammed's empire tumble to the ground; The dreams of Infidels in smoke decay, And all the foes of heaven shall fleet away. 4 In barren wilds shall living waters spring, Fair temples rise, and songs of transport ring: The savage mind with sweet affection warm. And light and love the yielding bosom charm: From sin's oblivious sleep the soul arise, And grace and goodness shower from balmy skies. 6 Then shall mankind no more in darkness mourn; Then happy nations in a day be born; From east to west thy glorious Name be one, And one pure worship hail th' eternal Son: Remotest realms one spotless faith unite, And o'er all regions beam the Gospel's light. 6 Then shall thy saints exult with joy divine; Their virtues quicken, and their lives refine; Their souls improve, their songs more grateful rise, And sweeter incense cheer the morning skies; Heaven o'er the world unfold a brighter day, And Jesus spread his reign from sea to sea.

HYMN 186. C. M. Bethlehem. [*] Zion exalted above the Hills. Isa. xxii, 4.

1 O'ER mountain tops, the mount of God, In latter days, shall rise—

Above the summit of the hills, And draw the wondering eyes.

o 2 To this the joyful nations round, All tribes and tongues, shall flow; Up to the mount of God, they say, And to his house we'll go.

5 The beams that shine from Zion's hill Shall lighten every land;

Shall lighten every land; The King who reigns in Sel

The King who reigns in Salem's towers, Shall the whole world command, e 4 Among the nations he shall judge, His judgments truth shall guide;

His sceptre shall protect the just,
 And crush the sinner's pride.

• 5 No war shall rage, no hostile feuds Disturb those peaceful years;

To ploughshares men shall beat their swords,
To pruning-hooks their spears.

o 6 Come then, O house of Jacob, come, And worship at his shrine;

g And, walking in the light of God,
With holy beauties shine. Scotch Paraphrase.

HYMN 187. L. M. Castle-Street. [*]

Millennium. Isa. xi, 5-9. Rev. xx, 4-10.

1 L OOK up, my soul, with glad surprise, Towards the joyful, coming day, When Jesus shall descend the skies, And form a bright, a glorious day.

e 2 Nations shall in a day be born, And swift, like doves, to Jesus fly;

The saints shall know no clouds return, Nor sorrows mingled with their joy.

b 3 The lion and the lamb shall feed Together, in his peaceful reign;

—And Zion, blest with heavenly bread, Of pinching wants no more complain.

4 The Jew, the Greek, the bond, the free, Shall boast their sev'ral rights no more;

o But join in sweetest harmony,

Their Lord, their Sovereign, to adore.

-5 Thus, till a thousand years are pass'd, And Satan must be loos'd again; Short is the time his reign shall last,

a Ere he's confin'd in endless pain.

o 6 But the blest saints shall mount on high, Where their deliv'ring Prince is gone;

s Angels at God's command shall fly,

To bless them with a conqueror's crown. Anon.

Nature and Fraits of Charity.

1 O CHARITY, thou heavenly grace! All tender, soft and kind!

A friend to all the human race, To all that's good inclin'd! 2 The man of charity extends

To all his lib'ral hand;

His kindred, neighbours, foes and friends, His pity may command.

e 3 He aids the poor in their distress; He hears when they complain;

With tender heart delights to bless,

And lessen all their pain.

4 The sick, the pris'ner, poor and blind, And all the sons of grief.

In him a benefactor find-He loves to give relief.

o 5 'Tis love that makes religion sweet; 'Tis love that makes us rise,

With willing minds and ardent feet, To yonder happy skies.

Relieving Christ in his Members. Matt. xxv, 40. TESUS, my Lord, how rich thy grace! Thy bounties, how complete!

How shall I count the matchless sum?

How pay the mighty debt?

g 2 High on a throne of radiant light Dost thou exalted shine:

e What can my poverty bestow-. When all the worlds are thine?

-3 But thou hast brethren here below. The partners of thy grace,

And wilt confess their humble names Before thy Father's face.

HYMN 193. 8 & 7. [*]

A Charity Hymn.

ORD of life, all praise excelling, Thou, in glory, unconfin'd, Deign'st to make thy humble dwelling, With the poor of humble mind.

2 As thy love through all creation Beams, like thy diffusive light, So the scorn'd and humble station Shrinks before thine equal sight.

3 Thus thy care, for all providing,
Warm'd thy faithful prophet's tongue,
Who, the lot of all deciding,
To thy chosen Israel sung:—

4 'When thy harvest yields thee pleasure, 'Thou the golden sheaf shalt bind;

'To the poor belongs the treasure 'Of the scatter'd ears behind.'

CHORUS.

- 'These thy God ordains to bless' The widow and the fatherless.'
- 5 'When thine olive plants, increasing,
 'Pour their plenty o'er thy plain;
 'Grateful thou shalt take the blessing,
 'But not search the bough again.'
 Chorus.—'These, &c.'
- 6 'When thy favour'd vintage, flowing, 'Gladdens thy autumnal scene,' Own the bounteous hand bestowing, 'But thy vines the poor shall glean.' Cheous.—'These, &c.'
- 7 Still we read thy word declaring Mercy, Lord, thine own decree; Mercy, every sorrow sharing, Warms the heart resembling thee.
- 8 Still the orphan and the stranger, Still the widow owns thy care; Screen'd by thee in every danger, in there in every prayer.

Meeting of Christian Friends.

1 INDRED in Christ, for his dear sake, A hearty welcome here receive; May we together now partake The joys which only he can give.

o 2 To you and us by grace is given,
To know the Saviour's precious name;
And shortly we shall meet in heaven,

And shortly we shall meet in heaven, Our hope, our way, our end the same.

May he, by whose kind care we meet,

Send his good spirit from above,
Make our communications sweet,
And cause our hearts to burn with love.

4 Forgotten be each earthly theme, When christians see each other thus;

e We only wish to speak of Him,

a Who lived—and died—and reigns—for us.

- e 5 We'll talk of all he did and said, And suffer'd for us here below; The path he mark'd for us to tread, And what he's doing for us now.
- -6 Thus, as the moments pass away, We'll love, and wonder, and adore;

o And hasten on the glorious day, When we shall meet—to part no more. Newton

HYMN 195. S. M. Bingham. [*]

Parting of Christian Friends.

1 BLEST be the tie that binds
Our hearts in christian love;
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.

Before our Father's throne
 We pour our ardent prayers;
 Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one,
 Our comforts and our cares.

—3 We share our mutual woes, Our mutual burdens bear;

e And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.

e 4 When we asunder part, It gives us inward pain;

But we shall still be join'd in heart,

And hope to meet again.
This glorious hope revives

Our courage by the way;
While each in expectation lives,

While each in expectation lives
And longs to see the day.

-6 From sorrow, toil, and pain, And sin we shall be free;

g And perfect love and friendship reign
Through all eternity.

Daily Duties. Dependence and Enjoyment. Rom. xiv, 8.—
Morning or Evening.

7 HEN, streaming from the eastern skies, The morning light salutes my eyes, O Sun of Righteousness divine, On me with beams of mercy shine; Chase the dark clouds of guilt away, And turn my darkness into day. 2 When, to heaven's great and glorious King. My morning sacrifice 1 bring: And, mourning o'er my guilt and shame, Ask mercy in my Saviour's name: Then, JESUS, sprinkle with thy blood, And be my Advocate with God. 3 As every day thy mercy spares Will bring its trials and its cares; O Saviour, till my life shall end, Be thou my counsellor and friend: Teach me thy precepts, all divine. And be thy great example mine. 4 When pain transfixes every part, And languor settles at the heart; When on my bed, diseas'd, oppress'd, I turn, and sigh, and long for rest; O great Physician! see my grief, And grant thy servant sweet relief. 5 Should poverty's consuming blow Lay all my worldly comforts low: And neither help, nor hope appear, My steps to guide, my heart to cheer; Lord, pity, and supply my need, For thou on earth wast poor indeed. 6 Should Providence profusely pour Its various blessings in my store; O keep me from the ills, that wait On such a seeming prosperous state; From hurtful passions set me free, And humbly may I walk with thee. 7 When each day's scenes and labours close, And wearied nature seeks repose, With pard'ning mercy richly bless'd, Guard me, my Saviour, while I rest;

And as each morning sun shall rise,
O lead me onward to the skies.
8 And at my life's last setting sun,
My conflicts o'er, my labours done,
Jesus, thine heavenly radiance shed,
To cheer and bless my dying bed;
And from death's gloom my spirit raise,
'To see thy face, and sing thy praise.'

Religion the One Thing needful.

B ELIGION is the chief concern

May I its great importance learn,

Its sovereign virtue know.

2 More needful this than glitt'ring wealth, Or aught the world bestows;

Not reputation, food, or health,

Can give us such repose.

Religion should our thoughts engage Amidst our youthful bloom;

Twill fit us for declining age, And for the awful tomb.

4 Oh may my heart, by grace renew'd, Be my Redeemer's throne!

And be my stubborn will subdu'd,

His government to own.

5 Let deep repentance, faith and love, Be join'd with godly fear;

- And all my conversation prove My heart to be sincere.

6 Preserve me from the snares of sin,

Through my remaining days; And in me let each virtue shine,

To my Redeemer's praise.

And may I wait, with strong desire, To mount above the skies.

'The seats from which their foes were hurl'd.

4 'Go, burn the chaff in endless fire,

HYMN 213. L. M. Castle-Street. [*] Help obtained of God. New Year.

REAT God, we sing that mighty hand,
By which supported still we stand!
The opening year thy mercy shews;
Let mercy crown it till it close.

e 2 By day, by night, at home, abroad, Still we are guarded by our God: By his incessant bounty fed,

By his unerring counsel led.

-3 With grateful hearts the past we own; The future—all to us unknown, We to thy guardian care commit, And peaceful leave before thy feet. 4 In scenes exalted or depress'd. Be thou our joy, and thou our rest; Thy goodness all our hopes shall raise, Ador'd through all our changing days.

e 5 When death shall interrupt our songs, And seal in silence mortal tongues, g Our Helper, God, in whom we trust, In better worlds our souls shall boast. Rippon's Col.

> HYMN 214. 10 & 11. Walworth. [*] Goodness of God. New Year.

TOUSE of our God, with cheerful anthems ring,

While all our lips and hearts his graces sing; The opening year his graces shall proclaim, And all its days be vocal with his name;

The Lord is good—his mercy never ending; His blessings in perpetual showers descending.

2 The heaven of heavens he with his bounty fills: Ye seraphs bright, on ever blooming hills, His honours sound; you to whom good alone, Unmingled, ever-growing, has been known:

Through your immortal life, with love increasing, Proclaim your Maker's goodness—never ceasing.

3 Thou earth, enlighten'd by his rays divine, Pregnant with grass, and corn, and oil, and wine. Crown'd with his goodness, let thy nations meet, And lay their crowns at his paternal feet;

With grateful love that lib'ral hand confessing, Which through each heart diffuses ev'ry blessing.

e 4 Zion, enrich'd with his distinguish'd grace, Blest with the rays of thine Emmanuel's face-Zion, Jehovah's portion and delight, Grav'n on his hands, and hourly in his sight, o In sacred strains, exalt that grace excelling, Which makes thy humble hill his chosen dwelling...

- -5 His mercy never ends—the dawn, the shade Still see new beauties thro' new scenes display'd; Succeeding ages bless this sure abode, And children lean upon their father's God,
- e The deathless soul through its immense duration, Drinks from this source immortal consolation.
- 8 6 Burst into praise, my soul; all nature, join; Angels and men, in harmony combine:

e While human years are measur'd by the sun, And while Eternity its course shall run—g His goodness, in perpetual showers descending, Exalt in songs and raptures never ending.

HYMN 215. C. M. Sunday. [*]

Close of the Year.

1 A WAKE, ye saints, and raise your eyes, And raise your voices high;

o Awake, and praise that sovereign love, That shews salvation nigh.

-2 On all the wings of time it flies, Each moment brings it near;

o Then welcome, each declining day! Welcome, each closing year!

-3 Not many years their rounds shall run,
Nor many mornings rise,
Ere all its glories stand reveal'd

To our admiring eyes.

o 4 Ye wheels of nature speed your course;

Ye mortal powers decay;
Fast as ye bring the night of death.

o Ye bring eternal day. Doddridge.

HYMN 216. L. M. Carthage. [b] Importance of Time.

- TIME, how few thy value weigh:
 How few will estimate a day!
- e Days, months, and years, are rolling on,
- a The soul neglected—and undone.
- -2 In painful cares, or empty joys,
 Our life its precious hours destroys;
 Whilst death stands watching at our side,
 Eager to stop the living tide.

- Your Maker gave you here a place? Was it for this his thoughts design'd The frame of your immortal mind?
- d 4 For nobler cares, for joys sublime, He fashion'd all the sons of time; Pilgrims on earth; but soon to be— The heirs of immortality.

—5 This season of your being, know, Is given to you your seeds to sow; Wisdom's and folly's differing grain, In future worlds, is bliss, and pain.

e 6 Then let me every day review,— Idle or busy, search it through;

—And, whilst probation's minutes last, Let ev'ry day amend the past.

HYMN 217. C. P. M. Pilgrim. [b]

Serious prospect of Eternity.

e 1 LO! on a narrow neck of land,
'Twixt two unbounded seas I stand—

p Yet how insensible!

A point of time—a moment's space—o Removes me to you heavenly place, e Or—shuts me up in hell!

O God, my inmost soul convert,

And deeply in my thoughtless heart

Eternal things impress; Give me to feel their solemn weight,

And save me, ere it be too late— Wake me to righteousness.

—3 Before me place, in bright array,
The pomp of that tremendous day,
When they with slowly shelt som

When thou with clouds shalt come, To judge the nations at thy bar;—

e And tell me, Lord, shall I be there, To meet a joyful doom?

—4 Be this my one great business here,— With holy trembling, holy fear,

To make my calling sure!
Thine utmost counsel to fulfil,
And suffer all thy righteous will,
And to the end endure!

o 5 Then, Saviour, then my soul receive, Transported from this vale, to live And reign with thee above;

g Where faith is sweetly lost in sight,
And hope, in full, supreme delight,
And everlasting love. Rippon's Col.

HYMN 218. 8 & 7. Sicilian. [*] Eternity joyfully anticipated.

1 IN this world of sin and sorrow, Compass'd round with many a care,

From eternity we borrow

Hope that can exclude despair.

2 Thee, triumphant God and Saviour, In the glass of faith we see!

O assist each faint endeavour!
Raise our earth-born souls to thee.

e 3 Place that awful scene before us Of the last tremendous day,—

HYMN 219. C. M. Plymouth. [b]

1 E TERNAL God, enthron'd on high! Whom angel hosts adore; Who yet to suppliant dust art nigh, Thy presence I implore.

2 O guide me down the steep of age, And keep my passions cool:

Teach me to scan the sacred page, And practise every rule.

3 My flying years time urges on, What's human must decay;

e My friends, my young companions gone— Can I expect to stay?

e 4 Can I exemption plead, when death Projects his awful dart?

Can med'cines then prolong my breath, Or virtue shield my heart?

—5 Ah, no!—then smooth the mortal hour; On thee my hope depends:

Support me with almighty power, While dust to dust descends.

• 6 Then shall my soul, O gracious God! (While angels join the lay,)

Admitted to the blest abode, Its endless anthems pay:—

o 7 Through heaven, howe'er remote the bound, Thy matchless love proclaim;

g And join the choir of saints, who sound Their great Redeemer's name. Rippon's Col.

HYMN 220. C. M. Bishopsgate. [b] Warning to prepare for Death.

1 VAIN man, thy fond pursuits forbear— Repent!—thy end is nigh!

Death, at the farthest, can't be far, Oh, think before thou die!

2 Reflect—thou hast a soul to save: Thy sins—how high they mount!

What are thy hopes beyond the grave?
How stands that dread account?

3 Death enters—and there's no defence:
His time, there's none can tell:

He'll in a moment call thee hence, To heaven—or to hell!

4 Thy flesh, perhaps thy chiefest care, Shall crawling worms consume; But, ah! destruction stops not there!—

But, ah! destruction stops not there!— Sin kills beyond the tomb.

5 To-day the gospel calls;—to-day,
Sinners, it speaks to you:

Let ev'ry one forsake his way, And mercy will ensue.

HYMN 221, C. M. Windsor. [b] Death and Judgment appointed to all. Heb. ix, 27.

1 HEAVEN has confirm'd the dread decree,
That Adam's race must die:

One gen'ral ruin sweeps them down-And low in dust they lie.

2 Ye living men, the tomb survey, Where you must shortly dwell:

e Hark! how the awful summons sounds.
In ev'ry funeral knell!

3 Once you must die—and once for all; The solemn purport weigh:

For know, that heaven or hell are hung

On that important day!

4 Those eyes, so long in darkness veild, Must wake, the Judge to see;

And ev'ry word—and ev'ry thought—

Must pass his scrutiny.

—5 Oh may I in the Judge behold My Saviour and my Friend;

Desiring to depart and be with Christ. Phil. i, 23.

And longs to wing its flight away.

2 Come, ye angelic guardians, come,

And lead the willing pilgrim home;

—Ye know the way to Jesus' throne,

OW blest is our friend—now bereft L Of all that could burden his mind!

How easy his soul—that has left This wearisome body behind? Of evil incapable thou, Whose relics with envy I see: No longer in misery now— No longer a sinner like me. 2 This earth is affected no more With sickness, or shaken with pain: The war with the members is o'er. And never shall vex him again. No anger, henceforward, nor shame, Shall redden his innocent clay: Extinct is the animal flame, And passion is vanish'd away. 3 This languishing head is at rest; Its thinking and aching are o'er; This quiet, immoveable breast, Is heav'd by affliction no more.

This heart is no longer the seat Of trouble and torturing pain; It ceases to flutter and beat-It never shall flutter again. 4 The lids he so seldom could close. By sorrow forbidden to sleep. Seal'd up in eternal repose, Have strangely forgotten to weep. The fountains can yield no supplies: These hollows from water are free; The tears are all wip'd from these eyes, And evil they never shall see. 5 To mourn and to suffer is mine. While bound in a prison I breathe, And still for deliverance pine, And press to the issues of death. What now with my tears I bedew, Oh, shall I not ere long become! Nativity of Christ. Luke ii, 14.

1 MORTALS, awake, with angels join, And chant the solemn lay:

Joy, love, and gratitude, combine To hail th' auspicious day.

s 2 In heaven the rapturous song began, And sweet seraphic fire

Through all the shining legions ran, And swept the sounding lyre.

3 The theme, the song, the joy was new To each angelic tongue:

Swift through the realms of light it flew, And loud the echo rung.

4 Down, through the portals of the sky, The pealing anthem ran;

And angels flew, with eager joy, To bear the news to man.

5 Hark! the cherubic armies shout, And glory leads the song:

Peace and salvation swell the note Of all the heavenly throng.

6 With joy the chorus we repeat—"Glory to God on high!"

Good will and peace are now complete;
Jesus is born to die.

Wing your flight o'er all the earth;

Ye, who sang creation's story, Now proclaim Messiah's birth: Come and worship—

Worship Christ, the new-born King.

—2 Shepherds! in the field abiding, Watching o'er your flocks by night; God with man is now residing, Yonder shines the infant-light.

Come, &c.

-3 Sages! leave your contemplations;

Brighter visions beam afar;

Seek the Great Desire of nations; Ye have seen his natal star:

Come, &c.

p 4 Saints! before the altar bending, Watching long in hope and fear, Suddenly the Lord, descending, In his temple shall appear:

Come, &c.

5 Sinners! wrung with true repentance,
Doomed for guilt to endless pains,

Justice now revokes the sentence,

Mercy calls you—break your chains:
Come, &c.

BRIGHTEST and best of the sons of the morning,

Dawn on our darkness and lend us thine aid: Star of the east, the horizon adorning, Guide where our Infant Redeemer is laid.

Say, shall we yield him, in costly devotion,
Odours of Edom, and offerings divine,
Gems of the mountain, and pearls of the ocean,
Myrrh from the forest, and gold from the mine r
Vainly we offer each ample oblation,
Vainly with gold would his favour secure;

Richer by far is the heart's adoration,
Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor.

The Value of a Moment.

T every motion of our breath, Life trembles on the brink of death; A taper's flame that upward turns, While downward to the dust it burns. 2 A moment ushered us to birth, Heirs of the commonwealth of earth; Moment by moment, years are past, And one ere long will be our last. 3 'Twixt that, long-fled, which gave us light, And that which soon shall end in night, There is a point no eye can see, Yet on it hangs eternity. 4 This is that moment,—who shall tell Whether it leads to heaven or hell? This is that moment,—as we choose, The immortal soul we save or lose. 5 Time past and time to come are not.

Time present is our only lot; O God, henceforth our hearts incline

WHERE shall rest be found, p Rest for the weary soul?

'Twere vain the ocean depths to sound,

Or pierce to either pole:

2 The world can never give The bliss for which we sigh;

'Tis not the whole of life to live, Nor all of death to die.

3 Beyond this vale of tears. There is a life above,

Unmeasured by the flight of years, And all that life is love:—

4 There is a death, whose pang Outlasts the fleeting breath:

Oh what eternal horrors hang Around "the second death!"

Jesus ready stands to save you,

e Full of pity, love, and power; He is able,

He is willing; doubt no more!

o 2 Come, ye weary, heavy laden, Lost and ruined by the fall!

If you tarry till you're better, You will never come at all: Not the righteous—

HYMN 326. C. M. Broomsgrove. [*]

p 1 HOW sweet, how heavenly is the sight, When those who love the Lord,

In one another's peace delight, And so fulfill his word;—

—2 When each can feel his brother's sigh, And with him bear a part:

When sorrows flow from eye to eye, And joy from heart to heart;—

3 When, free from envy, scorn, and pride, Our wishes all above,

Each can his brother's failings hide, And show a brother's love.

b 4 Let love, in one delightful stream, Through every bosom flow;

And union sweet, and dear esteem,

In every action glow.

5 Love is the golden chain that binds
The happy souls above;
And he's an heir of heaven, who finds

And he's an heir of heaven, who finds
His bosom glow with love.

HYMN 327. S. M. Lisbon.

Exhortation against Sectarian Spirit.

ET party names no more ■ The Christian world o'erspread: Gentile and Jew, and bond and free,

Are one in Christ their Head.

2 Among the saints on earth Let mutual love be found:

Heirs of the same inheritance, With mutual blessings crowned.

3 Let envy and ill will Be banished far away; And all in Christian bonds unite,

Who the same Lord obey. 4 Thus will the church below Resemble that above;

Where no discordant sounds are heard, But all is peace and love. Beddome. р

HYMN 329. C. M. Tolland. The Church Militant learning the Church Triumphant's Song.

CING we the song of those who stand Around th' eternal throne,

Of every kindred, clime, and land, A multitude unknown.

2 Life's poor distinctions vanish here;

To-day, the young, the old,

Our Saviour and his flock appear One Shepherd and one fold.

p 3 Toil, trial, suffering, still await On earth the pilgrims' throng;

Yet learn we, in our low estate,
The church triumphant's song.

s 4 Worthy the Lamb for sinners slain, Cry the redeemed above,

Blessing and honour to obtain, And everlasting love.

5 Worthy the Lamb, on earth we sing,

Who died our souls to save:

Henceforth, O Death! where is thy sting?
Thy victory, O Grave?

6 Then, hallelujah! power and praise

To God in Christ be given; May all who now this anthem raise,

Renew the strain in heaven. Montgomery.

Vital Union to Christ in Regeneration.

EAR Saviour, we are thine

By everlasting bonds; Our names, our hearts, we would resign;

Our souls are in thy hands.

2 To thee we still would cleave,

With ever-growing zeal; If millions tempt us Christ to leave,

Oh, let them ne'er prevail.

o 3 Thy Spirit shall unite

Our souls to thee, our Head; Shall form us to thy image bright,

That we thy paths may tread.

4 Death may our souls divide From these abodes of clay;

But love shall keep us near thy side Through all the gloomy way.

5 Since Christ and we are one, Why should we doubt and fear?

If he in heaven hath fixed his throne,

He'll fix his members there. Doddridg.

HYMN 331. L. M. Atlantic. [*]

TOW let our souls, on wings sublime, Rise from the vanities of time: Draw back the parting veil, and see The glories of eternity. 2 Born by a new, celestial birth, Why should we grovel here on earth? Why grasp at transitory toys, So near to heaven's eternal joys? 3 Shall aught beguile us on the road, When we are walking back to God? For strangers into life we come. And dying is but going home. s 4 Welcome, sweet hour of full discharge. That sets our longing souls at large; Unbinds our chains, breaks up our cell, And gives us with our God to dwell. 5 To dwell with God, to feel his love, Is the full heaven enjoyed above; And the sweet expectation now

Is the young dawn of heaven below. Gibbons.

Thou, from hence, my all shalt be;

Perish every fond ambition,

All I've sought, or hoped, or known, Yet how rich is my condition!

God and heaven are still my own.

o 2 Soul, then know thy full salvation, Rise o'er sin, and fear, and care, Joy to find in every station

Something still to do or bear;

e Think what spirit dwells within thee; Think what Father's smiles are thine; Think that Jesus died to win thee:

Child of heaven, canst thou repine?

s 3 Haste thee on from grace to glory,

Armed by faith, and winged by prayer; Heaven's eternal days before thee, God's own hand shall guide thee there.

Soon shall close thy earthly mission, Soon shall pass thy pilgrim days; Hope shall change to glad fruition, Faith to sight, and prayer to praise.

Almighty Saviour, set me free;
And as my treasure is above,

HYMN 349. L. M. Dresden. [b]

THEN darkness long has veiled my mind, And smiling day once more appears, Then, my Redeemer, then I find The folly of my doubts and fears. 2 I chide my unbelieving heart, And blush that I should ever be Thus prone to act so base a part, Or harbour one hard thought of thee. 3 O, let me, then, at length be taught (What I am still so slow to learn) That God is love, and changes not, Nor knows the shadow of a turn. 4 Sweet truth, and easy to repeat! But, when my faith is sharply tried, I find myself a learner vet. Unskilful, weak, and apt to slide. 5 But, O my Lord, one look from thee - Subdues the disobedient will. HYMN 366. 7s. Evening Hymn. [*]

THAT are these in bright array. This innumerable throng, Round the altar night and day, Hymning one triumphant song: "Worthy is the Lamb once slain, Blessing, honour, glory, power, Wisdom, riches, to obtain, New dominion, every hour." 2 These through fiery trials trod, These from great affliction came: Now before the throne of God. Sealed with his almighty name; Clad in raiment pure and white, Victor-palms in every hand, Through their dear Redeemer's might, More than conquerors they stand. 3 Hunger, thirst, disease unknown, On immortal fruits they feed: Them, the Lamb amidst the throne, Shall to living fountains lead: Joy and gladness banish sighs, Perfect love dispels all fears, And forever from their eyes. God shall wipe away the tears.

The Ransomed of the Lord shall return, &c. Isa. xxxv, 10.

And strike the heavenly song;

Ye pilgrims, in Jehovah's ways

With music pass along.

e 2 How straight the path appears!
How open and how fair!

No lurking gins t' entrap our feet— No fierce destroyer there.

b 3 But flowers of paradise
In rich profusion spring;
The sup of slow silds the part

The sun of glory gilds the path And dear companions sing.

o 1 SOLDIERS of Christ, arise, And put your armour on,

For the Blessing of Father, Son, and Spirit.

OMMAND thy blessing from above, O God! on all assembled here: Behold us with a Father's love. While we look up with filial fear. 2 Command thy blessing, Jesus, Lord! May we thy true disciples be: Speak to each heart the mighty word, Say to the weakest, "Follow me." 3 Command thy blessing in this hour, Spirit of Truth! and fill this place With humbling and exalting power, With quickening and confirming grace. 4 O thou, our Maker, Saviour, Guide, One true eternal God confest: May nought in life or death divide The saints in thy communion blest. Montgomery.

HYMN 407. C. M. Stephens. [* or b]

E bow before thy gracious throne,
And think ourselves sincere;
But show us, Lord, is every one

Thy real worshipper?

-2 Is here a soul that knows thee not, Nor feels his want of thee?

A stranger to the blood which bought His pardon on the tree?

3 Speak with that voice which wakes the dead, And bid the sleeper rise!

And bid his guilty conscience dread.

e 4 Call forth the cry, "What must be done "To save a wretch like me?

e "How shall a trembling sinner shun

"That endless misery?" Wesley's Col.

ORD! dismiss us with thy blessing; Fill our hearts with joy and peace:

Let us all, thy love possessing, Triumph in redeeming grace!

Oh refresh us—

Travelling through this wilderness.

s 2 Thanks we give and adoration, For thy gospel's joyful sound: Let the fruits of thy salvation

In our hearts and lives abound:

May thy presence— With us evermore be found.

AMB of God! whose bleeding love We now recall to mind.

Send the answer from above,

And let us mercy find:

Think on us, who think on thee, And every burdened soul release:

Oh remember Calvary,

And bid us go in peace!

2 By thine agonizing pain,

And bloody sweat, we pray; By thy dying love to man,

Take all our sins away:

Burst our bonds, and set us free,

From all iniquity release;

Oh remember Calvary,

And bid us go in peace!

3 Through thy blood, by faith applied,

Let sinners pardon feel:

Speak us freely justified,

And all our sickness heal;

By thy passion on the tree,

Let all our griefs and troubles cease:

Oh remember Calvary,

And bid us go in peace.

The Living and the Dead.

e 1 WHERE are the dead? In heaven or hell Their disembodied spirits dwell; Their buried forms in bonds of clay, Reserved until the judgment-day.

Who were the dead? The sons of time, In every age, and state, and clime;
Renowned, dishonoured, or forgot,
The place that knew them knows them not.
Where are the living? On the ground,
Where prayer is heard, and mercy found;

Where in the period of a span, The mortal makes th' immortal man.

4 Who are the living? They whose breath Draws every moment nigh to death; Of bliss or wo the eternal heirs; O what an awful choice is theirs!

Die, to live the life of glory—

Suffer, with thy Lord to reign. C. Wesley.

HYMN 450. L. M. Munich. [b] p 1 HOW blest the righteous when they die, When holy souls retire to rest!

How mildly beams the closing eye!

How gently heaves th' expiring breast!

2 So fades a summer cloud away:

So sinks the gale when storms are o'er: So gently shuts the eye of day:

So dies a wave along the shore.

3 Farewell, conflicting hopes and fears,

Where lights and shades alternate dwell! s How bright th' unchanging morn appears! p Farewell, inconstant world, farewell!

Barbauld.

HYMN 451. C. M. Lanesboro'. [b] p 1 DEAR as thou wert, and justly dear, We would not weep for thee;

One thought shall check the starting tear,—

It is—that thou art free.

2 And thus shall faith's consoling power The tears of love restrain;

Oh! who that saw thy parting hour Could wish thee here again!

3 Gently the passing spirit fled, Sustained by grace divine:

Oh may such grace on us be shed, And make our end like thine.

Dale.

HYMN 452. 8 & 7. Greenville. [b or *]

Happiness of departed Saints the Consolation of Survivors.

1 THINK, O ye who fondly languish
O'er the grave of those you love:
While your bosoms swell with anguish,
They are warbling hymns above.

p 2 While our silent steps are straying, Lonely through night's deepening shade, u Glory's brightest beams are playing Round the happy Christian's head.

s 3 Light and peace at once deriving From the hand of God most high,

In his glorious presence living, They shall never—never die!

HYMN 453. 7s. Hotham. [*]

O! the prisoner is released,
Lightened of his fleshly load;
Where the weary are at rest,
He is gathered unto God!
Lo! the pain of life is past,
All his warfare now is o'er;
Death and hell behind are cast,
Grief and suffering are no more.

g 2 Yes, the Christian's course is run,

Ended is the glorious strife;

u Fought the fight, the work is done, Death is swallowed up of life!

s Borne by angels on their wings, Far from earth the spirit flies, Finds his God, and sits and sings, Triumphing in Paradise.

—3 Let the world bewail their dead, Fondly of their loss complain; Brother, friend, by Jesus freed, Death to thee, to us, is gain:

s Thou art entered into joy:
Let the unbelievers mourn;
We in songs our lives employ,
Till we all to God return

Till we all to God return. Wesley's Col.

HYMN 454. 8s. Goshen. [b or *] e 1 'TIS finished! the conflict is past,

The heaven-born spirit is fled;
Her wish is accomplished at last,
And now she's entombed with the dead.

The months of affliction are o'er, The days and the nights of distress; We see her in anguish no more— She has found a happy release.

-2 No sickness, or sorrow, or pain, Shall ever disquiet her now; For death to her spirit was gain, Since Christ was her life when below.

s Her soul has now taken its flight To mansions of glory above, To mingle with angels of light, And dwell in the kingdom of love.

3 The victory now is obtained: She's gone her Redeemer to see; Her wishes she fully has gained— She's now where she panted to be. Then let us forbear to complain That she has now gone from our sight; We soon shall behold her again, With new and redoubled delight.

Alexander's Col.

S. M. HYMN 455. Bowen. [b or *] Sleeping in Jesus.

SLEEP in Jesus! blessed sleep! From which none ever wakes to weep!

A calm and undisturbed repose. Unbroken by the last of foes!

2 Asleep in Jesus! oh! how sweet p To be for such a slumber meet:

g With holy confidence to sing

That death hath lost its venomed sting!

3 Asleep in Jesus! peaceful rest! p Whose waking is supremely blest; No fear—no wo, shall dim that hour, That manifests the Saviour's power.

4 Asleep in Jesus! oh, for me May such a blissful refuge be:

Securely shall my ashes lie,

Waiting the summons from on high.

5 Asleep in Jesus! time nor space Debars this precious "hiding place;" On Indian plains, or Lapland snows, Believers find the same repose.

6 Asleep in Jesus! far from thee Thy kindred and their graves may be; But there is still a blessed sleep,

From which none ever wakes to weep.

HYMN 456. S. M. Olmutz. On the Death of an aged Minister.

CERVANT of God, well done! Rest from thy loved employ;

s The battle fought, the victory won, Enter thy Master's joy.

2 The voice at midnight came, He started up to hear;

A mortal arrow pierced his frame, He fell,—but felt no fear.

3 The pains of death are past, Labor and sorrow cease;

And, life's long warfare closed at last, His soul is found in peace.

4 Soldier of Christ, well done! Praise be thy new employ, And while eternal ages run, Rest in thy Saviour's joy. Montgomery.

C. M. Funeral Hymn. HYMN 457. Ы Funeral.

DENEATH our feet and o'er our head Is equal warning given:

Beneath us lie the countless dead, Above us is the heaven!

2 Their names are graven on the stone, Their bones are in the clay:

And ere another day is gone, Ourselves may be as they.

3 Death rides on every passing breeze, And lurks in every flower; Each season has its own disease,

Its peril every hour!

4 Our eyes have seen the rosy light Of youth's soft cheek decay, And fate descend in sudden night

On manhood's middle day.

5 Our eyes have seen the steps of age Halt feebly to the tomb;

And yet shall earth our hearts engage, And dreams of days to come?

6 Turn, mortal, turn! thy danger know:

Where'er thy foot can tread,
The earth rings hollow from hel

The earth rings hollow from below, And warns thee of her dead!

-7 Turn, Christian, turn! thy soul apply
To truths divinely given:
The forms which underneath thee lie,

The forms which underneath thee lie, Shall live, for hell or heaven! Pratt's Col.

HYMN 458. L. M. Monmouth. [b or *]

The Day of Judgment.

g 1 THE day of wrath! that dreadful day,
When heaven and earth shall pass
What power shall be the sinner's stay? [away!

How shall he meet that dreadful day—

2 When, shrivelling like a parched scroll, The flaming heavens together roll; And, louder yet, and yet more dread, Swells the high trump that wakes the dead?

a 3 Oh! on that day, that wrathful day, When man to judgment wakes from clay, Be thou, O Christ! the sinner's stay, p Though heaven and earth shall pass away.

Scott

HYMN 459. S. M. Olmutz. [*]
Christ's Second Coming.

o 1 HE comes! the Conqueror comes! Death falls beneath his sword;

The joyful prisoners burst the tombs, And rise to meet their Lord.

o 2 The trumpet sounds, "Awake! "Ye dead, to judgment come!"

The pillars of creation shake, While man receives his doom.

while man receives his doom.

Thrice happy morn for those

Who love the ways of peace:
No night of sorrow e'er shall close,
Or shade their perfect bliss.

HYMN 460. S. M. Watchman. (b or *) e 1 THOU Judge of quick and dead,

Before whose bar severe,

With holy joy, or guilty dread, We all shall soon appear;

2 Our cautioned souls prepare For that tremendous day;

And fill us now with watchful care, And stir us up to pray.

3 O may we all be found Obedient to thy word;

Attentive to the trumpet's sound, And looking for our Lord!

4 O may we all ensure A lot among the blest;

And watch a moment to secure An everlasting rest.

Wesley's Col.

HYMN 461. 8s. Goshen. [*]

- g 1 TE comes! he comes! the Judge severe!
 The seventh trumpet speaks him near:
 His lightnings flash; his thunders roll;
 How welcome to the faithful soul!
- u 2 From heaven angelic voices sound;
 See the Almighty Jesus crowned!
 Girt with omnipotence and grace;
 And glory decks the Saviour's face.
 - 3 Descending on his azure throne, He claims the kingdoms for his own. The kingdoms all obey his word, And hail him their triumphant Lord.
- s 4 Shout, all the people of the sky!
 And all the saints of the Most High:
 Our Lord, who now his right obtains,
 For ever and for ever reigns. Wesley's Col.

HYMN 462. 8, 7 & 4. Tamworth. [*]

O! he comes! with clouds descending,
Once for favored sinners slain;
Thousand, thousand saints attending,
Swell the triumph of his train:

Swell the triumph of his train.
Halleluiah!—

Jesus comes,—he comes to reign.

Every eye shall now behold him,
Robed in dreadful majesty;
Those who set at nought and sold him,

Pierced and nailed him to the tree, Deeply wailing—

Shall the true Messiah see.

3 Every island, sea, and mountain, Heaven and earth shall flee away; All who hate him must, confounded,

Hear the trump proclaim the day; Come to judgment!

Come to judgment! come away!

4 Yea, Amen! let all adore thee, High on thine eternal throne! Saviour! take the power and glory; Claim the kingdom for thine own!

Oh come quickly-Hallelujah! Come, Lord, come!

Oliver.

Prospect of the Resurrection unto Life.

e 1 THROUGH sorrow's night, and danger's Amid the deepening gloom, path. We, soldiers of an injured King, Are marching to the tomb.

2 There, when the turmoil is no more, And all our powers decay, p Our cold remains in solitude Shall sleep the years away.

3 Our labors done, securely laid In this our last retreat, Unheeded, o'er our silent dust, The storms of life shall beat.

-4 Yet not thus lifeless, thus inane, The vital spark shall lie; For o'er life's wreck that spark shall rise To seek its kindred sky.

5 These ashes too, this little dust, Our Father's care shall keep, o Till the last angel rise and break The long and dreary sleep.

p 6 Then love's soft dew o'er every eye Shall shed its mildest rays,

And the long silent dust shall burst With shouts of endless praise. H. K. White HYMN 464. C. M. Archdale. [*] The Resurrection of the Christian.

S 1 MY faith shall triumph o'er the grave, And trample on the tombs:

My Jesus, my Redeemer lives, My God, my Saviour comes;

Ere long I know he shall appear, In power and glory great;

And death, the last of all his foes, Lie vanquished at his feet.

e 2 Then though the worms my flesh devour, And make my form their prey,

I know I shall arise with power, On the last judgment day:

When God shall stand upon the earth,

Him there mine eyes shall see; My flesh shall feel a second birth, And eyer with him be.

p 3 Then his own hand shall wipe the tears From every weeping eye;

And pains, and groans, and griefs, and fears, Shall cease eternally.

o How long, dear Saviour! O, how long Shall this bright hour delay!

s O, hasten thy appearance, Lord, And bring the welcome day.

Watts

HYMN 465. C. M. St. Ann's. [* or b] e 1 JESUS, to thy dear wounds we flee, We seek thy bleeding side;

—Assured that all who trust in thee Shall evermore abide.

u 2 Then let the thundering trumpet sound,

The latest lightning glare;

e The mountains melt; the solid ground

e Dissolve as liquid air;

o 3 The huge celestial bodies roll, Amidst that general fire,

And shrivel as a parchment scroll, And all in smoke expire!

—4 Yet still the Lord, the Saviour reigns, When nature is destroyed,

And no created thing remains Throughout the flaming void.

g 5 Sublime upon his azure throne, He speaks,—the Almighty Word: His fiat is obeyed! 'tis done: And paradise restored. 6 So be it! let this system end, This ruined earth and skies; s The New Jerusalem descend, The New Creation rise. 7 Thy power omnipotent assume; Thy brightest majesty! And when thou dost in glory come. Wesley's Col My Lord, remember me. HYMN 466. 7 & 6. Amsterdam. CTAND th' omnipotent decree: Jehovah's will be done! Nature's end we wait to see. And hear her final groan: Let this earth dissolve, and blend In death the wicked and the just: Let those ponderous orbs descend. And grind us into dust. ·2 Rests secure the righteous man, At his Redeemer's beck, Sure to emerge, and rise again, And mount above the wreck: Lo! the heavenly spirit towers, Like flames o'er nature's funeral pyre; Triumphs in immortal powers, And claps his wings of fire! o 3 Nothing hath the just to lose, By worlds on worlds destroyed; Far beneath his feet he views, With smiles, the flaming void; Sees this universe renewed: The grand millennial reign begun, Shouts with all the sons of God, Around th' eternal throne! 4 Resting in this glorious hope, To be at last restored. Yield we now our bodies up,

The last trumpet of the seven: Soon our souls and dust shall join, And both fly up to heaven.

Listening for the call divine,

To earthquake, plague, or sword:

HYMN 467. P. M. Lather's Humn. TREAT God! what do I see and hear! The end of things created! The Judge of man I see appear, On clouds of glory seated!

Beneath his cross I view the day.

Lincoln. HYMN 468. 7s.

ARK! that shout of rapturous joy, Bursting forth from yonder cloud!

Jesus comes!—and through the sky. Angels tell their joy aloud.

2 Hark! the trumpet's awful voice. Sounds abroad, through sea and land:

Let his people now rejoice! Their redemption is at hand.

3 See! the Lord appears in view: Heaven and earth before him fly! Rise, ye saints, he comes for you-

Rise to meet him in the sky. 4 Go, and dwell with him above. Where no foe can e'er molest: Happy in the Saviour's love! Ever blessing, ever blest.

HYMN 469. C. M. Marlow, Praise to God.

IFT up to God the voice of praise, ■ Whose breath our souls inspired: Loud and more loud the anthems raise,

With grateful ardor fired! 2 Lift up to God the voice of praise, Whose goodness, passing thought,

Loads every moment, as it flies,

With benefits unsought!

3 Lift up to God the voice of praise, From whom salvation flows,

Who sent his Son our souls to save From everlasting woes.

4 Lift up to God the voice of praise, For hope's transporting ray,

Which lights through darkest shades of death. Reed's Col. To realms of endless day.

HYMN 470. Sudbury. 7s. Glory to God in the Highest.

CONGS of praise the angels sang, Heaven with hallelujahs rang, When Jehovah's work begun, When he spake and it was done.

2 Songs of praise awoke the morn, When the Prince of Peace was born; Songs of praise arose, when he Captive led captivity.

3 Heaven and earth must pass away, Songs of praise shall crown that day: God will make new heavens and earth. Songs of praise shall hail their birth.

p 4 And shall man alone be dumb, Till that glorious morning come?

s No! the church delights to raise Psalms, and hymns, and songs of praise.

5 Saints below, with heart and voice, Still in songs of praise rejoice, Learning here, by faith and love, Songs of praise to sing above.

6 Borne upon their latest breath. Songs of praise shall conquer death; Then, amidst eternal joy, Songs of praise their powers employ.

Pratt's Col.

HYMN 471. 88. Drummond. Our God for ever and ever.

THIS God is the God we adore, Our faithful, unchangeable Friend; Whose love is as large as his power, And neither knows measure nor end. 2 'Tis Jesus, the First and the Last, Whose Spirit shall guide us safe home; We'll praise him for all that is past, And trust him for all that's to come.

HYMN 472. C. M. Amherst. FOR a thousand seraph tongues To bless th' incarnate Word! O for a thousand thankful songs In honor of my Lord!

Come, tune afresh your golden lyres,
 Ye angels round the throne;
 Ye saints, in all your sacred choirs,
 Adore the eternal Son.

HYMN 473. C. M. St. Ann's. [*]

YES—I will bless thee, O my God!

Through all my mortal days,

And to eternity prolong

Thy vast, thy boundless praise.

2 Nor shall my tongue alone proclaim The honors of my God!

My life, with all its active powers, Shall spread thy praise abroad.

3 Not death itself shall stop my song, Though death will close my eyes: My thoughts shall then to nobler heights And sweeter raptures rise.

4 There shall my lips in endless praise
Their grateful tribute pay:

The theme demands an angel's tongue,
And an eternal day.

HYMN 474. 7s & 6s. Amsterdam. [*] Universal Praise.

1 PRAISE the Lord, who reigns above,
And keeps his courts below:
Praise him for his boundless love.

And all his greatness show.

2 Praise him for his noble deeds, Praise him for his matchless power: Him, from whom all good proceeds,

Let earth and heaven adore.

3 Publish, spread to all around,
The great Immanuel's name;

Let the gospel-trumpet sound, Him, Prince of Peace proclaim.

4 Praise him, every tuneful string:
All the reach of heavenly art,
All the power of music bring,

The music of the heart.

5 Him, in whom they move and live, Let every creature sing; Glory to our Saviour give,

And homage to our King.

6 Hallowed be his name beneath,
As in heaven on earth adored;
Praise the Lord in every breath,
Let all things praise the Lord. Pratt's Col.

I ON Judah's plain, the minstrel lyre
Is hushed, for mirth has winged her flight;
In Zion's courts the holy fire
Is quenched, and sorrow veils the night;
No lamp illumes yon vaulted way,
Save one pale orb that burns alone.
2 'Tis Bethlehem's star; the holy gem
That hailed the Godhead from the skies;
'Tis Bethlehem's star! the diadem
That tells the conqueror shall rise:
He rises—and the golden choir
Of angel minstrels wakes the song.

TIT.

WITH darkness whelmed, in error lost,
On sin's tempestuous ocean tossed,
While hope withdrew her cheering ray,
Despairing nature sunk away:—
When lo! to raise a drooping earth,
Behold, behold, a wondrous birth:
To calm the mind and dry your tears
The holy babe of life appears.
The voice of joy let nature raise,
And pour the grateful song of praise,—
Hail with a loud acclaim the morn,
The Saviour of the earth is born.

Goald's Ch. How

IV.

SHOUT the glad tidings, exultingly sing,
Jerusalem triumphs, Messiah is king.
Zion, the marvellous story be telling,
The Son of the Highest how lowly his birth;
The brightest archangel in glory excelling,
He stoops to redeem thee, he reigns upon earth.

- 1 DAUGHTER of Zion, awake from thy sadness! Awake! for thy foes shall oppress thee no more; Bright o'er thy hills dawns the day-star of gladness, Arise! for the night of thy sorrow is o'er.
- 2 Strong were thy foes, but the arm that subdued them, And scattered their legions, was mightier far; They fled like the chaff from the scourge that pursued them,

Vain were their steeds and their chariots of war.

3 Daughter of Zion, the power that hath saved thee, Extolled with the harp and the timbrel should be: Shout! for the foe is destroyed that enslaved thee; The oppressor is vanquished, and Zion is free.

HAIL, hail, sweet cherub, charity,
Hail, hail, sweet cherub, charity,
Thou first of virtues, hail:
'Tis thou canst blend in misery's cup,
The soft, the balmy cordial, hope,
When other comforts fail.
Great God of love and light and day,
We humbly here our offerings lay,
Before the footstool of thy throne:
All that we have, O Lord, is thine,
And should we all to thee resign,
We only render back thine own.
To soothe and mitigate distress,
O make us ever free;

Handel and Haudn Col.

XXVII.

THE Lord will comfort Zion; he will comfort her waste places, and make her like Eden, the garden of the Lord. Joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving and the voice of melody.

XXVIII.

HOW beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth! Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing; for they shall see eye to eye, when the Lord shall bring again Zion. Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem; for the Lord hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem. The Lord hath made bare his holy arm, in the eyes of all nations. And all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our Lord.
